Field Education Site List

More contact information is located in the*
*Field Evaluation Site Book in the Social Work Office

Adult Population

- Department of Family & Protective Services/Adult Protective Services
  - 325-657-8999
  - Website: www.dfps.state.tx.us
  - Adult Protective Services investigates allegations of abuse, neglect or exploitation of elderly or adults with disabilities.
  - Field Education students will work closely with the staff and will with case management, mock assessments, observe interviews, and help work with resources within the community and activities within the department.
- Disabilities Connections
  - 325-277-6624
  - Website: http://www.dcciltx.org/
  - Disability Connections is a non-profit center for independent living adults designed to promote choice and full inclusion for people with various disabilities.
  - Field Education students will help with intake interviews, gain experience with groups and families relations, and help with staff development and training.
- Hospice of San Angelo (HOSA)
  - 325-658-6524
  - Website: www.hospiceofsanangelo.org/
  - HOSA is a free standing hospice that serves individuals with life limiting illnesses and their families, as well as provides bereavement care to individuals and families after a death.
  - Field Education students will be able to help in obtaining social history and needs assessments, gain knowledge of the social service agencies and resources in the community, and learn about the grieving process and bereavement care.
- MHMR Service for the Concho Valley
  - 325-658-7750
  - Website: www.mhmrcv.org/
  - MHMR provides services to those with mental illness and/or those with intellectual disabilities that will help their clients make choices that result in greater independence.
  - Field Education students will assist in service planning and monitoring, writing service plans, meeting with consumers, families and service providers, as well as advocate and mediating for clients, and documenting service contacts.

Children/Adolescent Population

- Big Brothers Big Sisters
  - 325-486-2200
  - Website: http://www.bbbs.org/
  - Big Brothers Big Sisters enriches, encourages and empowers children to reach their highest potential through safe and positive mentoring relationships.
  - Field Education students will be able to shadow the interviews of the children and the volunteers, be involved in the recruitment, the in-house computer programs to track the intake to match completion and fundraising, and attend meetings and work with the board of the directors.
- Texas Department of Protective Services/ CPS
  - 325-657-8833
  - Website: www.dfps.state.tx.us/
  - CPS investigates reports of abuse and neglect of children or services provided or denied to the child within the family setting, as well as increasing awareness of abuse and/or neglect of children. Field Education students will gain experience in intakes, referrals, Family Base Services Conservatorship Services (foster care), adoption, fostering connections, and witness court proceedings.
- Child Advocacy Center
  - 325-653-4673
  - Website: http://www.cactomgreen.org/
  - The Child Advocacy Center's mission is to serves as an advocate for abused children by providing them with safe and nurturing homes. Field Education students will have the opportunity to work with three programs within the agency. The first is the Court Appointed Special Advocates (CASA) program that appoints children who have been removed from their homes to foster homes by CPS. The second program is Family Enrichment Services, which provides parent education classes as well as parent mentoring programs to help families stay together. The third program is Hope House, which provides a team perspective on interviewing the abused children and seeing if there is enough evidence for prosecution. Field Education students will also be able to do observations in court room proceedings and home visits.
- Early Childhood Intervention
  - 325-658-6571
  - Early Childhood Intervention (ECI) is a statewide program for families with children, birth to three, with disabilities and developmental delays. ECI supports families to help their children reach their potential through developmental services, including speech therapy, physical therapy, occupational therapy, nutrition services, nursing services, social work services, and case management services. Families and professionals work as a team to plan appropriate services based on the unique needs of the child and family. ECI focuses on working with the family and child in their natural environment, where the child learns and plays.

    - Field Education students will be instructed on the processes related to completing intakes, screenings, assessments and evaluations, develop Individualized Family Service plans, service delivery, and care management. Students will also become familiar with disabilities and developmental delays that affect children birth to age three and how that impacts family functioning and familial relationships.
- ICD New Bridge Family Shelter
    - 325-658-8631
    - The NewBridge Family Shelter is an emergency shelter to assist victims and their family members in crisis due to domestic violence.
    - Field Education students will be able to participate in intakes, witness individual and group techniques, attend coalition against violence meetings, and are able to help family members in job and house hunting.
- MHMR Service for the Concho Valley
    - 325-658-7750
    - Website: www.mhmrcv.org/
    - MHMR provides services to those with mental illness and/or those with intellectual disabilities that will help their clients make choices that result in greater independence.
    - Field Education students will assist in service planning and monitoring, writing service plans, meeting with consumers, families and service providers, as well as advocate and mediating for clients, and documenting service contacts.
- Tom Green County Juvenile Justice Center
    - 325-655-2323
    - Website: http://www.co.tom-green.tx.us/ips/cms/othercountyoffices/JuvenileProbation/About_Probation.html
    - At the Tom Green County Juvenile Justice Center, juvenile probation is the main area of focus for this site. The Juvenile Probation program is responsible for ensuring that the youth have the support, skills, and services needed to be available to be a contributing member to society.
    - Field Education students will be able to experience individual and group techniques, community involvement, evaluation, assessments, and interventions. Specifically, students will learn the process of probation and courts while observing officers with their clients.
- West Texas Boys Ranch
    - 325-949-1936
    - Website: http://www.wtbr.org/
    - The West Texas Boys Ranch provides residential services (public schooling and therapy services) for basic to moderate level boys ages 6-18.

        - Field Education students will help with casework services including intake interviews, screening calls, and case management. Students will also aid in writing Plans of Service, case notes, and discharge planning.
    - Youth Advocacy Program
        - 325-658-5599
        - Website: http://www.yapinc.org
        - Youth Advocate Programs is one of the largest non-profit Youth and Family support agencies working with high risk youth and their families in the United States. Youth Advocate Programs Inc.; offers effective and cost efficient alternative to the incarceration or institutional placement of young people. In Tom Green County they are currently working with juvenile justice system and the education system to develop and offer community based alternatives for the higher risk children, juveniles and families.
        - Field Education students will have the opportunity to conduct client intakes, develop individualized service plans, identify and develop community linkages, understand the juvenile justice and education systems, and develop and facilitate competency with parenting groups.

Community Involvement

- Alcohol & Drug Abuse Council for the Concho Valley (ADACCV)
    - 325-224-3481
    - Website: www.adaccv.org
    - ADACCV is a private and non-profit agency that offers substance abuse treatment and prevention programs to substance users. Inters will work in two programs offered through ADACCV; the Treatment Program and the Prevention Program.
    - In the Treatment Program, Field Education students will see the full scope of services – screening, intake, referrals, education, documentation, standard and ethics, client care, and follow-ups. In the Prevention Program, Field Education students will learn about the community process of prevention and evidence-based strategies are used within the agency.
- Big Brothers Big Sisters
    - 325-486-2200
    - Website: http://www.bbbs.org/
    - Big Brothers Big Sisters enriches, encourages and empowers children to reach their highest potential through safe and positive mentoring relationships.
    - Field Education students will be able to shadow the interviews of the children and the volunteers, be involved in the recruitment, the in-house computer programs to track the intake to match completion and fundraising, and attend meetings and work with the board of the directors.
- Concho Valley Community Action Agency

        - 325-653-2411
        - Website: http://cvcaa.org/
        - The Community Action Agency provides federal assistance to low-income individual and families by providing aid to help pay utility bills, making their homes more energy efficient, and providing financial planning.
        - Field Education students will be able to experience individual and group techniques, participate in intakes, grant writing, income tax preparation, and fundraising.
    - Meals for the Elderly
        - 325-655-9200
        - Website: http://www.mealsfortheelderly.org/
        - Meals for the Elderly is a private, nonprofit charitable organization devoted to serving the homebound elderly of San Angelo with one hot, nutritious, home-delivered meal each weekday, while ensuring their individual well-being through personal contact.
        - Field Education students will accompany case managers on home visits, complete follow-ups on applications and assessments, and process intakes.
    - West Texas Counseling and Guidance
        - 325-944-2561
        - West Texas Counseling and Guidance is a non-profit agency that provides basic outpatient mental health services to the San Angelo area.
        - Field Education students will gain experience in working within a non-profit agency perspective and also be working at the macro level (i.e. working with grants) within the community.
    - Youth Advocacy Program
        - 325-658-5599
        - Website: http://www.yapinc.org
        - Youth Advocate Programs is one of the largest non-profit Youth and Family support agencies working with high risk youth and their families in the United States. Youth Advocate Programs Inc.; offers effective and cost efficient alternative to the incarceration or institutional placement of young people. In Tom Green County they are currently working with juvenile justice system and the education system to develop and offer community based alternatives for the higher risk children, juveniles and families.
        - Field Education students will have the opportunity to conduct client intakes, develop individualized service plans, identify and develop community linkages, understand the juvenile justice and education systems, and develop and facilitate competency with parenting groups.

Crisis Intervention

    - The American Red Cross

        - 325-658-4409
        - Website: www.redcross.org
        - The American Red Cross is an emergency response organization that has three departments of service: developing funds for emergency response situations, coordinating volunteers, and aiding services to those who have been struck by a disaster and the armed forces. The American Red Cross has three programs that Field Education students can participate in. The first is in Fund Development, where students will help in increasing the visibility of the American Red Cross and the services they provide. The second program is Volunteer Services, where students will aid in volunteer recruitment, as well as help keeping the volunteers engaged through different events. The third program is Disaster Services/Service to the Armed Forces, where students will help in case work involving entering information about the disaster.
    - Child Advocacy Center
        - 325-653-4673
        - Website: http://www.cactomgreen.org/
        - The Child Advocacy Center's mission is to serves as an advocate for abused children by providing them with safe and nurturing homes. Field Education students will have the opportunity to work with three programs within the agency. The first is the Court Appointed Special Advocates (CASA) program that appoints children who have been removed from their homes to foster homes by CPS. The second program is Family Enrichment Services, which provides parent education classes as well as parent mentoring programs to help families stay together. The third program is Hope House, which provides a team perspective on interviewing the abused children and seeing if there is enough evidence for prosecution. Field Education students will also be able to do observations in court room proceedings and home visits.
    - Concho Valley Rape Crisis Center
        - 325-655-2000
        - Website: http://cv-rcc.org/
        - The Concho Valley Rape Crisis Center provides crisis intervention and advocacy to victims of sexual assault, as well as, education and prevention programs.
        - Field Education students will experience individual and group techniques, crisis intervention techniques, fundraising, grant writing, and planning for special events.
    - ICD New Bridge Family Shelter
        - 325-658-8631
        - The NewBridge Family Shelter is an emergency shelter to assist victims and their family members in crisis due to domestic violence.
        - Field Education students will be able to participate in intakes, witness individual and group techniques, attend coalition against violence meetings, and are able to help family members in job and house hunting.

- Tom Green County Sheriff's Crisis Intervention Unit
    - 325-658-3921
    - Website: http://www.circares.com/
    - The Crisis Intervention Unit (CIU) provides crisis intervention services to victims of crime or crisis on a 24/7 basis, when requested by law enforcement to respond to the scene. Volunteers respond in pairs, with the lead volunteer having at least one year's experience. Services include crisis counseling, referrals, applications for emergency protective orders, etc.
    - Field Education students will learn to apply crisis interventions/counseling to victims who have traumatized by crime. Students will also gain experience with intakes, individual, group and family work, and community involvement meetings or activities.

Elderly Populations

- Baptist Retirement Community (SageCrest Alzheimer's Unit)
    - 325-486-3703
    - Website: www.bapmem.com/
    - The Baptist Retirement Community provides skilled nursing, home health, hospice and independent living to senior adults.
    - Field Education students will help attend meetings with staff psychiatrist, care plan meetings with families, Alzheimer's support group, Quality Assurance Committee, Resident's Council meetings, weekly utilization reviews, and help in discharge planning, end of Life planning, Advance Directives, advocate for residents rights, and advocate for person-centered care.
- Department of Family & Protective Services/Adult Protective Services
    - 325-657-8999
    - Website: www.dfps.state.tx.us
    - Adult Protective Services investigates allegations of abuse, neglect or exploitation of elderly or adults with disabilities.
    - Field Education students will work closely with the staff and will with case management, mock assessments, observe interviews, and help work with resources within the community and activities within the department.
- Hospice of San Angelo (HOSA)
    - 325-658-6524
    - Website: www.hospiceofsanangelo.org/
    - HOSA is a free standing hospice that serves individuals with life limiting illnesses and their families, as well as provides bereavement care to individuals and families after a death.
    - Field Education students will be able to help in obtaining social history and needs assessments, gain knowledge of the social service agencies and resources in the community, and learn about the grieving process and bereavement care.

- Meadow Creek Nursing Center
  - 325-942-4000
  - Website: http://www.trisunhealthcare.com/index.php?option=com_content&view=article&id=32&Itemid=39
  - Meadow Creek is a nursing facility that provides skilled, physical, occupational, and speech therapy, as well as long-term services for the geriatric population.
  - Field Education students will be able to help in assessments, interviews and documenting case management, discharge planning, community referrals, and gain knowledge about Medicare and Medicaid guidelines for skilled nursing and long-term care.
- Meals for the Elderly
  - 325-655-9200
  - Website: http://www.mealsfortheelderly.org/
  - Meals for the Elderly is a private, nonprofit charitable organization devoted to serving the homebound elderly of San Angelo with one hot, nutritious, home-delivered meal each weekday, while ensuring their individual well-being through personal contact.
  - Field Education students will accompany case managers on home visits, complete follow-ups on applications and assessments, and process intakes.
- Senior Care Center San Angelo
  - 325-944-1600
  - Website: http://seniorcarecentersltc.com/
  - The Senior Care Center Social Services Department provides general social work services to older adults receiving either long-term nursing care or temporary physical and occupational rehabilitation.
  - Field Education students will help with biopsychosocial assessments (long-term and temporary care), discharge planning, completing minimum data sets, quarter reviews, care plans, and case notes.

Legal Setting

- Child Advocacy Center
  - 325-653-4673
  - Website: http://www.cactomgreen.org/
  - The Child Advocacy Center's mission is to serves as an advocate for abused children by providing them with safe and nurturing homes. Field Education students will have the opportunity to work with three programs within the agency. The first is the Court Appointed Special Advocates (CASA) program that appoints children who have been removed from their homes to foster homes by CPS. The second program is Family Enrichment Services, which provides parent education classes as well as parent mentoring programs to help families stay together. The third program is Hope House, which provides a team perspective on interviewing the abused children and seeing if there is enough evidence for prosecution. Field Education students will also be able to do observations in court room proceedings and home visits.

- ICD New Bridge Family Shelter
  - 325-658-8631
  - The NewBridge Family Shelter is an emergency shelter to assist victims and their family members in crisis due to domestic violence.
  - Field Education students will be able to participate in intakes, witness individual and group techniques, attend coalition against violence meetings, and are able to help family members in job and house hunting.
- Tom Green County Juvenile Justice Center
  - 325-655-2323
  - Website: http://www.co.tom-green.tx.us/ips/cms/othercountyoffices/JuvenileProbation/About_Probation.html
  - At the Tom Green County Juvenile Justice Center, juvenile probation is the main area of focus for this site. The Juvenile Probation program is responsible for ensuring that the youth have the support, skills, and services needed to be available to be a contributing member to society.
  - Field Education students will be able to experience individual and group techniques, community involvement, evaluation, assessments, and interventions. Specifically, students will learn the process of probation and courts while observing officers with their clients.
- Tom Green County Sheriff's Crisis Intervention Unit
  - 325-658-3921
  - Website: http://www.circares.com/
  - The Crisis Intervention Unit (CIU) provides crisis intervention services to victims of crime or crisis on a 24/7 basis, when requested by law enforcement to respond to the scene. Volunteers respond in pairs, with the lead volunteer having at least one year's experience. Services include crisis counseling, referrals, applications for emergency protective orders, etc.
  - Field Education students will learn to apply crisis interventions/counseling to victims who have traumatized by crime. Students will also gain experience with intakes, individual, group and family work, and community involvement meetings or activities.
- Youth Advocacy Program
  - 325-658-5599
  - Website: http://www.yapinc.org
  - Youth Advocate Programs is one of the largest non-profit Youth and Family support agencies working with high risk youth and their families in the United States. Youth Advocate Programs Inc.; offers effective and cost efficient alternative to the incarceration or institutional placement of young people. In Tom Green County they are currently working with juvenile justice system and the education system to develop and offer community based alternatives for the higher risk children, juveniles and families.

    - Field Education students will have the opportunity to conduct client intakes, develop individualized service plans, identify and develop community linkages, understand the juvenile justice and education systems, and develop and facilitate competency with parenting groups.

Medical Setting

- Baptist Retirement Community (SageCrest Alzheimer's Unit)
    - 325-486-3703
    - Website: www.bapmem.com/
    - The Baptist Retirement Community provides skilled nursing, home health, hospice and independent living to senior adults.
    - Field Education students will help attend meetings with staff psychiatrist, care plan meetings with families, Alzheimer's support group, Quality Assurance Committee, Resident's Council meetings, weekly utilization reviews, and help in discharge planning, end of Life planning, Advance Directives, advocate for residents rights, and advocate for person-centered care.
- Esperanza Health and Dental Centers
    - 325-658-5339
    - Website: http://www.esperanzahealth.org/
    - The Esperanza Health and Dental Centers are a non-profit and federally qualified health center whose mission is to provide affordable, high quality primary and preventative health care services to all people, particularly the uninsured and medically underserved of San Angelo and the Concho Valley.
    - Field Education students will be asked to support, assist, and educate families to make the best use of the available community resources.
- Hospice of San Angelo (HOSA)
    - 325-658-6524
    - Website: www.hospiceofsanangelo.org/
    - HOSA is a free standing hospice that serves individuals with life limiting illnesses and their families, as well as provides bereavement care to individuals and families after a death.
    - Field Education students will be able to help in obtaining social history and needs assessments, gain knowledge of the social service agencies and resources in the community, and learn about the grieving process and bereavement care.
- Meadow Creek Nursing Center
    - 325-942-4000

        - Website: http://www.trisunhealthcare.com/index.php?option=com_content&view=article&id=32&Itemid=39
        - Meadow Creek is a nursing facility that provides skilled, physical, occupational, and speech therapy, as well as long-term services for the geriatric population.
        - Field Education students will be able to help in assessments, interviews and documenting case management, discharge planning, community referrals, and gain knowledge about Medicare and Medicaid guidelines for skilled nursing and long-term care.
    - Pregnancy Help Center of the Concho Valley
        - 325-944-1515
        - Website: http://www.pregnancyhelpcenter.net/
        - The Pregnancy Help Center provides confidential pregnancy testing, information on all clients' options regarding their pregnancy, and referrals for social services and medical care.
        - Field Education students will have the opportunity to experience individual and group counseling techniques. During training, students will shadow client advocates which will allow for immediate feedback. Students will also have the opportunity to work on their case management skills.
    - Senior Care Center San Angelo
        - 325-944-1600
        - Website: http://seniorcarecentersltc.com/
        - The Senior Care Center Social Services Department provides general social work services to older adults receiving either long-term nursing care or temporary physical and occupational rehabilitation.
        - Field Education students will help with biopsychosocial assessments (long-term and temporary care), discharge planning, completing minimum data sets, quarter reviews, care plans, and case notes.
    - Shannon Medical Center
        - 325-653-6741
        - Website: www.shannonhealth.com/
        - Shannon Medical Center is one of the local hospitals in San Angelo. The Case Management/Social Services Department makes referrals to local agencies and assesses a patients needs during and after their stay at the hospital.
        - Field Education students will help in making referrals to local agencies, assess the needs of the patient/family using psychosocial assessments, developing discharge plans for the interdisciplinary team, conducting family meetings, and learn the fundamentals of crisis intervention and how to report cases of abuse/neglect.
    - West Texas Rehabilitation Center
        - 325-223-6353
        - Website: www.westtexasrehab.org/

        - The West Texas Rehabilitation Center is a non-profit agency that provides therapy (physical, occupational and speech), auditory services, orthotics and prosthesis, and home medical equipment to those who need it. There are three programs that students will be able to participate in. The first is assisting patients with coming to terms with their diagnosis under the supervision of the interdisciplinary team. The second is the Donor Sponsorship Program, where students will be working with committee members on the distribution of donor dollars to patients. The third program is Parent Case Management, where students will help assist families with special needs children gain knowledge about available information of the diagnosis, the referral process, crisis intervention, and case management.

People with Disabilities/ Mental Health

- Disabilities Connections
    - 325-277-6624
    - Website: http://www.dcciltx.org/
    - Disability Connections is a non-profit center for independent living adults designed to promote choice and full inclusion for people with various disabilities.
    - Field Education students will help with intake interviews, gain experience with groups and families relations, and help with staff development and training.
- Early Childhood Intervention
    - 325-658-6571
    - Early Childhood Intervention (ECI) is a statewide program for families with children, birth to three, with disabilities and developmental delays. ECI supports families to help their children reach their potential through developmental services, including speech therapy, physical therapy, occupational therapy, nutrition services, nursing services, social work services, and case management services. Families and professionals work as a team to plan appropriate services based on the unique needs of the child and family. ECI focuses on working with the family and child in their natural environment, where the child learns and plays.
    - Field Education students will be instructed on the processes related to completing intakes, screenings, assessments and evaluations, develop Individualized Family Service plans, service delivery, and care management. Students will also become familiar with disabilities and developmental delays that affect children birth to age three and how that impacts family functioning and familial relationships.
- Guardianship Alliance
    - 325-657-0308
    - Website: http://www.thearc.org/page.aspx?pid=2335

        - Guardianship Alliance is a non-profit advocacy group for people with intellectual and developmental disabilities.
        - Field Education students will help recruit, train, and support community volunteers to support individuals with intellectual and developmental disabilities in need of decision-making support.
    - MHMR Service for the Concho Valley
        - 325-658-7750
        - Website: www.mhmrcv.org/
        - MHMR provides services to those with mental illness and/or those with intellectual disabilities that will help their clients make choices that result in greater independence.
        - Field Education students will assist in service planning and monitoring, writing service plans, meeting with consumers, families and service providers, as well as advocate and mediating for clients, and documenting service contacts.
    - Mosaic
        - 325-651-3333
        - Website: www.mosaicinfo.org/west_texas/
        - Mosaic provides support to individuals, children and adults, with intellectual disabilities in residential homes, childcare, and assisted living.
        - Field Education students will help in the admissions process, behavior plan strategies, functional analysis for behaviors, special needs childcare assessments and personal outcome measures.
    - West Texas Counseling and Guidance
        - 325-944-2561
        - West Texas Counseling and Guidance is a non-profit agency that provides basic outpatient mental health services to the San Angelo area.
        - Field Education students will gain experience in working within a non-profit agency perspective and also be working at the macro level (i.e. working with grants) within the community.
    - West Texas Rehabilitation Center
        - 325-223-6353
        - Website: www.westtexasrehab.org/
        - The West Texas Rehabilitation Center is a non-profit agency that provides therapy (physical, occupational and speech), auditory services, orthotics and prosthesis, and home medical equipment to those who need it. There are three programs that students will be able to participate in. The first is assisting patients with coming to terms with their diagnosis under the supervision of the interdisciplinary team. The second is the Donor Sponsorship Program, where students will be working with committee members on the distribution of donor dollars to patients. The third program is Parent Case Management, where students will help assist families with special needs children gain knowledge about available information of the diagnosis, the referral process, crisis intervention, and case management.

Substance Abuse

- Alcohol & Drug Abuse Council for the Concho Valley (ADACCV)
  - 325-224-3481
  - Website: www.adaccv.org
  - ADACCV is a private and non-profit agency that offers substance abuse treatment and prevention programs to substance users. Inters will work in two programs offered through ADACCV; the Treatment Program and the Prevention Program.
  - In the Treatment Program, Field Education students will see the full scope of services – screening, intake, referrals, education, documentation, standard and ethics, client care, and follow-ups. In the Prevention Program, Field Education students will learn about the community process of prevention and evidence-based strategies are used within the agency.
- River Crest Hospital
  - 325-949-5722
  - Website: www.rivercresthospital.com
  - River Crest Hospital specializes in the treatment of behavioral health and chemical dependency disorders that can afflict persons of all ages and military personnel.
  - Field Education students will help with assessments, treatment and discharge planning, as well as crisis intervention and individual, group and family therapy.