ORIGIN

DATE: September 1, 2007

LAST

REVIEW: October 26, 2011

PURPOSE: The purpose of this Operating Policy/Procedure (OP) is to set forth Angelo State University's policy on student media.

REVIEW: This OP will be reviewed by October 1 of every odd-numbered year by the department head of Communication, Mass Media, and Theatre, with recommendations for revisions presented through provost and vice president of academic affairs by November 1.

POLICY/PROCEDURE

The major campus publication at Angelo State University is THE RAM PAGE, a weekly newspaper containing articles of interest to the university community.

1. University Publications

- a. General supervision for the university's campus publication rests with the Publications Council which is responsible for insuring that the publication maintains high professional standards and fulfills the educational objectives for which it has been established.
- b. The ten-member council is made up of students, faculty, and staff. One of the chief responsibilities of the council is to appoint the editor each spring for the campus publication, based upon recommendations submitted by the chair of the Publications Council.
- c. Copies of the university publications policies are available in the offices of the head of the Communication, Mass Media, and Theatre department, who serves as Director of Publications; and the Executive Director of Student Life.
