

NATE #3 Group Proposal

Levels/Criteria	Unacceptable - 69% or less	Developing - 70-79%	Meets requirements - 80-89%	Proficient - 90-100%	Score/Level
Problem	The problem is vague or not defined in operational terms with little or no supporting evidence.	The problem is defined in subjective terms. Minimal supporting evidence given.	The problem is defined using some operational terms with supporting evidence cited.	Problem is clearly defined with supporting evidence sources well documented.
Literature	Background of problem and supporting literature are sketchy or not included.	Background of problem and supporting literature are sketchy or not fully developed.	Background of problem and supporting literature are sketchy or not fully developed.	Background of problem is well researched with supporting literature
Group proposal	Details of how group will be recruited, procedures for gaining permission, number of students, purpose of group, curriculum and materials, projected start and end dates and evaluation methods not clearly outlined.	Details of how group will be recruited, procedures for gaining permission, number of students, purpose of group, curriculum and materials, projected start and end dates and evaluation methods are outlined weakly.	Details of how group will be recruited, procedures for gaining permission, number of students, purpose of group, curriculum and materials, projected start and end dates and evaluation methods are clearly outlined.	Details of how group will be recruited, procedures for gaining permission, number of students, purpose of group, curriculum and materials, projected start and end dates and evaluation methods provided. Quality, clear and relevant process, perception and results data for the lessons are included and tied to the original problem.	