

Teacher Education

ANGELO STATE UNIVERSITY

Member, Texas Tech University System

Teacher Education

ANGELO STATE UNIVERSITY
Department of

Undergraduate Degrees Offered

- Bachelor of Science with a major in interdisciplinary studies

Areas of concentration:

- Early Childhood to Grade 6 Generalist
- Early Childhood to Grade 6 Generalist with All-Level Special Education
- Grades 4-8 English, Language Arts and Reading
- Grades 4-8 Generalist
- Certification options at the graduate level include: Reading Specialist, Educational Diagnostics, Initial Certification for Early Childhood to Grade 6 Generalist, Special Education All-Level (EC-12), and a local certificate in Dyslexia.

Master's Degrees Offered

- Master of Education in Professional Education
- Master of Education in Special Education

Each master's degree program offers several options for specialization.

Career Opportunities

- Teacher (elementary or middle school)
- Curriculum designer
- Corporate trainer
- Special Education

In addition to schools, other work settings for graduates include educational service centers, state department of education offices, and business and industry.

Department Highlights

- Students gain extensive field experience prior to student teaching.
- Our department stresses personal contact and advising, and all faculty members are available to speak with students whenever needed.
- Three active organizations are available to students: the Council for Exceptional Children, the ASU Chapter of the Texas State Teacher Association (TSTA) and Kappa Delta Pi (education honor society).
- Our department sponsors international study abroad programs through the ASU Center for International Studies.

Contact Us

Department of Teacher Education

Dr. Linda Lucksinger, Department Head

Office: Carr Education-Fine Arts Building, Room 145

Phone: 325-942-2052

E-mail: teacher.education@angelo.edu

www.angelo.edu/dept/education