Angelo State University represents its accredited status accurately and publishes the name, address, and telephone number of the Commission in accordance with Commission requirements and federal policy. Information regarding accreditation status is published on the ASU website on the Institutional Accreditation page, which can be accessed directly from the ASU home page using the "Institutional Accreditation" link at the bottom left of the page.

The accreditation-status statement reads as follows:

Angelo State University is accredited by the Commission on Colleges of the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools to award associate, baccalaureate, masters, and doctorate degrees. Contact the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools Commission on Colleges at 1866 Southern Lane, Decatur, Georgia 30033-4097, telephone (404) 679-4500, at <http://www.sacscoc.org> for questions about the accreditation of Angelo State University.

Note: The commission should be contacted only if there is evidence that appears to support the institution's significant non-compliance with a requirement or standard. Normal inquiries about Angelo State University, such as admission requirements, financial aid, educational programs, etc., should be addressed directly to Angelo State University and not to the Commission's office.

Commission accreditation status is also published on the Office of Sponsored Projects institution information page and in the undergraduate and graduate catalogs (ASU Undergraduate Catalog 2011–2012 and ASU Graduate Catalog 2011–2012), which are published online and available to ASU students, staff, faculty, and the general public.
