

C&I FIF Additional Questions

1. Content appropriately tied to the goals of the course.
2. The amount of content was appropriate for the length of the course.
3. The relevance of this course to my intended program was clear.
4. An effective variety of learning activities was provided.
5. The content and assignments in this course helped me develop valuable and useful professional knowledge and skills.
6. Course provides online navigation options that are clear, logical, and student friendly.
7. Course supplies resources that contributed to the learning process in a variety of ways.
8. Course offers ample opportunities for interaction and communication student to student and student to instructor.
9. Course includes a variety of multimedia elements and/or learning tools that are relevant to accommodate different learning styles throughout the course.
10. Course contains information for online learner support and links to campus resources.