Authoritative Content:

By offering authoritative Evidence Based Databases such as ACP PIER, ACP Medicine, and MedCalc, STAT!Ref ensures that a wealth of critical, reputable information is available.

STAT!Ref offers titles from a wide variety of respected publishers and societies. Many of these resources available through STAT!Ref are included on Doody's Core Titles (DCT) List.

Intuitive Search:

STAT!Ref offers a powerful search engine that is user-friendly and provides quick, relevant information – fast. All resources in a subscription can be searched via a simple text query. STAT!Ref then presents the results in relevance-ranked order, and offers alternative search suggestions. Resources are also searchable through the table of contents by expanding text.

STAT!Ref fully integrates search results with all titles, journals, and dictionaries in our product, to ensure that users have multiple search options and find results.

Value-added resources included with every subscription:

- AAFP Conditions A to Z (patient handouts in English or Spanish)
- MedCalc 3000 (EBM calculator)
- Stedman's Medical Dictionary
- Evidence Alerts (EBM information sent via email delivery based on your preferences)
  All alerts are pre-rated for clinical relevance
- Medical News Feeds (relevant, medical news for healthcare professionals)
- Bibliographic Citations (RefWorks & EndNote compatable)
- HL-7 Info Button Technology (for integration into EHR/EMR systems)
- MARC Records (and access to usage statistics)
- PubMed Journal Abstracts (direct linkage and links to individual titles)
