

ASU-SBDC Seminar Proposal

Do you have what it takes to be an ASU-SBDC seminar presenter?

The ASU-SBDC is always looking for new, dynamic presenters to offer educational seminars to the small business community of San Angelo and the Concho Valley. Presenters have the unique opportunity to share their expertise while making great contacts with local businesses. Please contact Jessica Lambert, ASU-SBDC training coordinator with any questions or to submit your proposal.

For more information please contact the ASU-SBDC Training Coordinator
sbdctraining@angelo.edu
Phone: (325) 942-2019 Fax: (325) 942-2096

NAME: _____
COMPANY: _____ POSITION: _____
PHONE: _____ E-MAIL: _____
ADDRESS: _____

SHORT BIO (Please include applicable education and public speaking experience):

AVAILABILITY (most seminars are given between 6-8:30 Tuesdays and Thursdays):

Preferred method of communication: Phone E-mail

ABOUT YOUR PRESENTATION:

TITLE/TOPIC: _____
DESCRIPTION: _____

TARGET AUDIENCE:

PRIMARY TRAINING TOPIC:

- Accounting/Budget Base Closure/Community Adjustment Business Financing Business Plan Buy/Sell Business
 Cash Flow Management Computer in Small Business Customer Relations eCommerce/EDI Franchising
 HUBZones International Trade Internet/Web Training Legal Issues Managing a Business Managing Employees
 Marketing/Sales Orientation Outsourcing Pre-business Planning Procurement Fair Procurement/Purchasing
 Rural Business Devel. Selling to Government Small Disadvantaged Businesses Tax Planning Technology
 Veterans Outreach Conf. Woman-owned Businesses Y2K Issues Other: _____

Thank you for your submission! Please allow a few business days for us to get back to you!