If your computer brings up fillable documents in an unsupported format, it will display a message such as the one below circled in red. To the far right of that message is a button that says, "Open with Different Viewer." Click on that button, choose the "Open with Adobe Acrobat" option, and it will open up the document as a fillable form.

!Fillable Document Example

If your computer brings up fillable documents in an unsupported format, it will display a message such as the one below circled in red. To the far right of that message is a button that says, "Open with Different Viewer." Click on that button, choose the "Open with Adobe Acrobat" option, and it will open up the document as a fillable form.

This PDF document contains forms. The filling of form fields is not supported.

!Fillable Document Example