Students who are finishing their first year of instruction should prepare this etude as well as a short piece of their choice (line from a book, part of an orchestra piece, one to two minutes).
Students who are finishing their first year of instruction should prepare this etude as well as a short piece of their choice (line from a book, part of an orchestra piece, one to two minutes).
Students who are finishing their first year of instruction should prepare this etude as well as a short piece of their choice (line from a book, part of an orchestra piece, one to two minutes).
Students who are finishing their first year of instruction should prepare this etude as well as a short piece of their choice (line from a book, part of an orchestra piece, one to two minutes).