Required Textbook:

Introduction to counseling: Voices from the field (8th edition)

by Jeffrey A. Kottler & David S. Shepard

Belmont, CA: Wadsworth, Cengage Learning
Course Overview: This online course provides an introduction to the history and profession of counseling and a survey of the major counseling theories. At the undergraduate level, no hands-on experience in using counseling theories or techniques will be provided due to ethical restraints; however, students will be required to view short videos of counseling in action.

Goals and Objectives: Specific objectives of the course are

1. gaining basic knowledge about counseling theories,
2. gaining knowledge about diverse perspectives in counseling psychology, and
3. learning to apply course material to counseling issues.

Student Learning Outcomes: Upon successful completion of Introduction to Counseling at the Angelo State University, students will be able to

1. have a basic knowledge about the development of counseling as a profession,
2. have a basic understanding of the professional issues and characteristics of an effective counselor,
3. have a basic knowledge about the major theories of counseling and concepts,
4. have a basic understanding about the use of selected techniques based on the counseling theories,
5. become familiar with the therapy in action by watching assigned videos, and
6. enumerate ethical and legal considerations involved in counseling.

Method of Assessing Learning Outcomes: Learning outcomes will be assessed via exams, writing assignment, and discussion participation.

Competencies Needed: It is most important that you know the terms of the syllabus of this course and have a good working knowledge of the Blackboard. Therefore, a “Know-the-Course test” is required of everyone which will cover the syllabus, Blackboard map, and important requirements of this course. You will lose 20 points toward your grade if you miss this test. The online course format requires a lot of self-discipline for the timely completion of exams, discussions, and writing assignments.

Course Requirements

1. In order to successfully complete this course, you must visit the Blackboard course site on a regular basis, and participate in all classroom discussions and assignments. All course work has specific due dates specified in the syllabus and due dates document.

2. You are expected to check BLACKBOARD and ASU email on a regular basis, preferably daily. Please complete reading assignments on time and meet all deadlines for submission of coursework. It is very important for you to stay current with your work because the summer term is an accelerated semester.
There will be five exams (one Know-the-Course Test and four Text-Exams): Each text exam has 20 multiple choice questions and is worth 20 points and the Know-the-Course test has 15 questions with one question on finding Blackberry which is worth 6 points. Time limit for each exam is 1 hour. All exams (except the Final Text Exam) will be available in the Examinations folder of Blackboard for seven days including a Saturday and a Sunday.

There will be NO MAKE-UP EXAMS under any circumstances. For emergencies such as hospitalization or accident, a special provision for completing the course will be made with documentation from the doctor recommending that student is unable to complete the course due to his/her condition.

Because all assignments are available for weekends and weekdays with an ample amount of time even for those who work full-time, there are no make-up provisions. The missed discussions cannot be made-up because they involve other students. However, you can participate in the Bonus Discussion to make-up for one missed major discussion.

Therefore, PLEASE DO NOT request to make-up any missed assignment unless you have a bona fide emergency. A doctor’s note will be required stating that you were not in any condition to complete the assignment in allowed time. If you still make such a request, I will refer you to this statement that you are agreeing to accept by staying in this course.

Total points in the course = 140

Five Exams = 100 points
One Writing Assignment on Videos = 20 points
One Major Discussion on Ch. 4 = 20 points

Bonus Discussion points = 16
If you miss an assignment/exam, these bonus points can be substituted.

Know-the-Course Test (on Syllabus, Blackboard, & finding Blackberry) = 20 points
This is a REQUIRED test contributing to your total score. The purpose is to orient you to this course and its requirements. Missing this test will negatively affect your grade.

Instructions for taking exams. The exams are delivered with software called Respondus Lockdown Browser (RLB). All campus computer labs have this software. For other locations, you will need to download the software. The link to download the RLB is on your Support Tab in Blackboard. To take an exam, click on the RLB icon on the desktop and it will take you into Blackboard. Then, click on this course; then click on the Examinations button; then click on the exam. You will be asked if the instructor provided a "Password"; answer "No". If you have entered Blackboard properly by accessing it through the RLB icon, the password for the test will be entered automatically on your behalf and you can start the exam. If you try to take a test without going through the RLB, you will be asked to provide a password that you don't have, so you cannot take the exam.

Stable Test Taking Experience: In order to have a stable test taking experience with the Lock Down browser, you should clear the temporary internet files and cookies before taking the test. You should also take the test on a computer that is hard wired to the network and not using a wireless network. Using computers on campus is an alternative if you continue experiencing issues with personal computers with the Respondus browser.

⚠️ The exams are not set up to be taken on an iPad or a cell phone.

Set aside the correct amount of time to complete an exam and save your answers as you progress through the exam. This will help preserve the answers should you lose Internet connection. If you do not save your answers, the answers will NOT be available.

⚠️ If you still have technical problems, please contact the e-Learning Center at 486-6263 before 5:00 pm (M-F); DO NOT contact me for the technical problems.

8. Writing assignment (worth 20 points) needs to be completed by the set date on the schedule above. Click on the Writing Assignment button on the Blackboard for instructions. The writing assignment will be available on the dates indicated on the folder.

9. Major Discussion: There is one Major Discussion worth 20 points. Instructions are given under the Discussion button. Please do not miss this discussion (make-up is not possible).

10. Introductory Discussion for Everyone: You are REQUIRED to participate in the Getting-to-Know-You discussion which is designed for class introduction so that you can know something about your professor and classmates. To access this and other discussions, click on the Discussions button on the Blackboard and follow the instructions.
11. Student Lounge in the Discussions folder provides a forum for an ongoing discussion for you to interact with other students, network, and discuss topics and questions prior to exams. You can contact each other via email and then decide to go to the Student Lounge.

12. Study Guide: Please use the Study Guide to prepare for the text exams. The test cues are provided for each exam in the Study Guide.

13. Nine Important Points are listed in the Announcements folder on the Blackboard for you.

Grade Determination

- 126-140 raw scores (90% or more) = A
- 112-125 raw scores (80% - 89%) = B
- 98-111 raw scores (70% - 79%) = C
- 84-97 raw scores (60% - 69%) = D
- 83 or less raw scores (59% or less) = F

Special Notes

1. Your Professor’s Philosophy: Teaching is not just a job for me; it is my calling, an “educational ministry.” I am here to guide/help/inspire you to do your best to earn a grade you desire. However, you have the personal responsibility to apply yourself and be an active learner. For more about Dr. Singg see “My Professor” folder on the Blackboard.

2. Academic Honesty: Academic honesty is expected on all work. Students are expected to maintain complete honesty and integrity in their online experiences. Any student found guilty of any form of dishonesty in academic work is subject to disciplinary action and possible expulsion from ASU.

The Department of Psychology, Sociology, and Social Work adheres to the academic honesty statement as set forth in the Angelo State University Student Handbook. University "faculty expects all students to engage in all academic pursuits in a manner that is above reproach and to maintain complete honesty and integrity in the academic experience both in and out of the classroom setting and may initiate disciplinary proceedings against a student accused of any form of academic dishonesty, including but not limited to, cheating on an examination or other academic work, plagiarism, collusion, and the abuse of resource materials."

Plagiarism at ASU is a serious topic. The Angelo State University’s Honor Code gives specific details on plagiarism and what it encompasses. Plagiarism is the action or practice of taking someone else's work, idea, etc., and passing it off as one's own. Plagiarism is literary theft.
In your discussions and/or your papers, it is unacceptable to copy word for word without quotation marks and the source of the quotation. We use the APA Style Manual of the American Psychological Association as a guide for all writing assignments. Quotes should be used sparingly. It is expected that you will summarize or paraphrase ideas giving appropriate credit to the source both in the body of your paper and the reference list. Papers are subject to be evaluated for originality via Bb Turnitin. For more information, see ASU Writing Center. http://www.angelo.edu/dept/writing_center/academic_honesty.php.

3. Students with Disabilities: “Angelo State University is committed to the principle that no qualified individual with a disability shall, on the basis of disability, be excluded from participation in or be denied the benefits of the services, programs, or activities of the university, or be subjected to discrimination by the university, as provided by the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990 (ADA), the Americans with Disabilities Act Amendments Act of 2008 (ADAAA), and subsequent legislation.”

The Office of Student Affairs is the designated campus department charged with the responsibility of reviewing and authorizing requests for reasonable accommodations based on a disability, and it is the student’s responsibility to initiate such a request by contacting the Office of Student Affairs, University Center, Room 112 at (325) 942-2047 or (325) 942-2211 (TDD/FAX) or by e-mail at studentservices@angelo.edu to begin the process. The Office of Student Affairs will establish the particular documentation requirements necessary for the various types of disabilities.

Reasonable accommodations will be made for students determined to be disabled or who have documented disabilities.

4. Absence for Observance of Religious Holy Days: A student who intends to observe a religious holy day should make that intention known in writing to Dr. Singg prior to the absence. This should not be a problem in this online class because we don’t take attendance and all assignments have a week (including a Saturday and a Sunday) to complete.

5. Syllabus Changes: I reserve the right to make changes as necessary in this syllabus throughout the semester. I will notify students of any changes by email or announcements.
6. Email Policy: If you need to communicate with me via e-mail, please do so from your angelo.edu email account. As per ASU policy, I will not respond to e-mails from your personal e-mail address. Please use good e-mail manners and include the following information in your message.

- A clear subject line, including the course number "Psy 3313."
- A clear message (check grammar and spellings) with one issue at a time.
- A proper salutation including my name (Dr. Singg) and signing off with your full name.

7. Task Preview: Please see this folder on the Blackboard for assignments and instructions.
