“It must be remembered that the purpose of education is not to fill the minds of students with facts; it is not to reform them, or amuse them, or make them expert technicians in any field. It is to teach them to think, if that is possible, and always to think for themselves.”

By Robert Hutchins

Course Title: EPSY 3303 Child and Adolescent Development (online)

Course Description: A study of the human development processes in children to adolescence including the developmental characteristics of learners in the cognitive, social, emotional, and physical domain. Special issues relevant to a diverse multicultural society and the socio-cultural influences that affect children’s classroom behavior will be examined. A Case Study Report is required.

Students enrolled in this course are responsible for knowing the information contained in this syllabus and all the information, instructions, and assignments/exams/quizzes provided in Blackboard for this course.

Textbooks & Materials Required

2. Taskstream Account: All students pursuing teacher certification must have a Taskstream account. Obtained from www.taskstream.com. For instructions for obtaining and setting up an account, see the instructions on Blackboard – Teacher Certification. Cost of the account varies with length of contract.

3. Articles and chapters assigned for discussion are posted to Blackboard. See each module.

4. Respondus LockDown Browser™ is a secure browser for taking exams in Blackboard. It prevents you from printing, copying, going to another URL, or accessing other applications during an assessment. If a Blackboard exam requires that Respondus LockDown Browser™ be used, the exam will not be accessible with a standard web browser. Go to the Support Tab on Blackboard and click on the link to download the Respondus LockDown Browser™ to your computer.

5. Candidates must access Blackboard for electronic posting of syllabus, assignments, announcements, grading information, etc. Contact the ASU Help Desk at 325-942-2911 to learn about Blackboard and accessing it. http://blackboard.angelo.edu.

Method of Instruction

This is an online course. It is not self-paced. Each module will open and close on specific dates. Once a module has closed, assignments will not be accepted. Blackboard is utilized for all communication, course content delivery, and class assignments, including midterm and final examinations. A Taskstream account is required for all teacher certification candidates, as they must submit the Case Study Report and complete a mandatory Disposition Survey through Taskstream. If you are not an education student seeking certification, submit your Case Study Report as directed in the information in that Module. Candidates (teacher certification students in this course) need to be able to access Blackboard on a regular basis and check their ASU email several times each week for communication from professors and from ASU.
Course Requirements

♦ It is the student’s responsibility to have a computer with access to the internet with adequate speed to do classwork, tests, and exams, and to access Blackboard and Taskstream. If you cannot meet this requirement, you must drop this class immediately. The latest version of your browser is recommended, Firefox and Chrome work well with Blackboard – some others including Explorer and Safari do not.

♦ Candidates in teacher certification programs must complete the ASU Dispositions of Effective Educators Statement on Taskstream and post the Case Study Report assignment to their Taskstream account. See information on Blackboard on how to set up an account and how to access your account to post these assignments. Note: Students who are taking this course as an elective and who are not seeking teacher certification do not have to have a Taskstream account. Special instructions for submission of the Case Study Report are provided in the Case Study Module.

♦ Students must complete the Case Study Report, all assignments, blogs/discussions boards, quizzes, and exams by posted deadlines to successfully complete the class.

♦ All written assignments, presentations, media presentations, etc., must follow the writing style found in the most current edition of the American Psychological Association Publication Manual (APA Manual). The APA Manual is available at the ASU library, bookstore, or online at www.apa.org. A section on Blackboard is devoted to APA links and resources.

Course Objectives

1. Gaining factual knowledge (terminology, classifications, methods, and trends).
2. Learning fundamental principles, generalizations, specific teaching strategies, and theories.
3. Developing specific skills, competencies, and points of view needed by professional educators.
4. Accumulate, organize, and develop teaching materials and supporting resources.

Assignments
A list of class assignments is given in each module. See Blackboard for specific information. Other non-graded assignments may be given. All written assignments, presentations, media presentations, etc., must follow the writing style found in the most current edition of the American Psychological Association Publication Manual (APA Manual). The APA Manual is available at the ASU library, bookstore, or online at www.apa.org.

Attendance Policy
As this is an online course, attendance is different from a face-to-face course. This online course is not a self-paced course, you must make time in your schedule to “come to class” online each week. Since this is a three semester-hour (3 SCH) course, you should plan for at least three (3) hours of instructional time online each week, PLUS additional hours for reading assignments, just as you would for a face-to-face course. Due dates for all assignments are listed in each module. Each module will open and close on specific dates. Once a module is closed, no additional assignments from that module will be accepted. It is important to use your time wisely and watch due dates.

Academic Honesty
You are to be familiar with the ASU Student Handbook (http://www.angelo.edu/student-handbook/) and the University Honor Code that includes the “Student Academic Honor Code”. You are to adhere to ASU policy. Angelo State University expects its teacher education candidates and all ASU students to maintain complete honesty and integrity in their academic pursuits and to be responsible for understanding the Academic Honor Code, which is contained in both print and web versions of the ASU Student Handbook. Plagiarism or the use of Internet prepared papers is strictly forbidden.

Faculty utilize Internet search links that assist in identifying plagiarized materials.
