COMM/MM 1337.01Z Fall 2017 Monday/Wednesday 2:00pm - 2:50pm

This is an ASU CONNECT! Course, STUDENTS gain enhanced learning by exploring and applying course materials in a hands-on, real world community context.

CONNECT! Program Level Outcome - Civic Responsibility
Connecting Civic Knowledge and Responsibility - Integrate knowledge from one's own study/field/discipline by consistently making accurate and relevant connections with civic responsibility and one's own civic participation.

Civic Communication - Tailors communication strategies to effectively express, listen, and adapt to others to establish relationships to further civic action.

Student Learning Outcomes
Upon completion of this course, students will be able to:

□ Develop, interpret, and express ideas through effective written communication

(CS1 -- Communication Skills)
□ Develop, interpret, and express ideas through effective oral communication

(CS2 -- Communication Skills)
□ Acquire skills in working with others as a member of a team

(TW1 -- Teamwork)
□ Demonstrate civic knowledge and responsibility by planning and producing promotional, recruitment and/or training corporate videos

(SR2 -- Social Responsibility)
□ Identify and describe equipment and editing software for digital video production
□ Create a video production with techniques commonly used in the media industry

Method for Assessing Student Learning Outcomes
Production 2: Corporate Video - Students connect with a community partner to produce corporate videos designed to address mutually defined community needs. Community Partners will have active engagement in communicating their needs with the students, scheduling interviews and participating in filming. Students will express ideas orally and in writing throughout this process.
Course Objectives:
Student will be engaged in the basic techniques of television production. Projects in this course involve single camera location shooting digital cameras, in-studio multi-camera production, non-linear editing equipment and writing for media production. Visual storytelling concepts and creative post-production editing will be emphasized.

Textbook:

Video Field Production and Editing 7th edition

Course Materials:
Students will need the following supplies
□ Headphones
□ 32 Gb USB Flash Drive (Thumb drive, Travel Drive)

Equipment and Editing Systems:
We will be using Adobe Premiere for all editing assignments and projects. You will be assigned one external hard drive, which will be checked in and out of the editing lab. Should you need them we also have access to Audition, After Effects, PhotoShop and Illustrator. It is recommended that students supply their own headphones for use during shooting and in the editing facility.

The R/TV Equipment Room is in the Library Building room LB340. Hours of operation will be announced in class. The digital video cameras you will be allowed to use for this course may be checked out from the Equipment Room along with batteries and tripods only during posted times.

Projects and Tests: Course requirements a final exam, three editing assignments and three field/studio video projects each building up in technical and creative complexity. The emphasis in these productions is your ability to visually tell a story. All projects for this course must be shot by the student. You may not use footage shot before this course began or footage shot by someone other than your production partner. The projects will be evaluated on both technical and creative levels.

Attendance: Attendance is mandatory. You are allowed two unexcused absences. These do not apply to due dates of exams and assignments, so use them wisely. All other absences will require an excuse form a doctor, hospital, police, funeral home or the University. Handwritten, emailed or texted excuses from your family member are not legitimate excuses and will not be accepted. Each unexcused absence after the first two will result in a loss of three points from you final course grade. The Department of Communication & Mass Media has a departmental attendance policy requiring students to be present at a minimum of 75% of all class meetings in order to pass the class. Exams or assignments missed due to an unexcused absence will receive a zero. Work handed in late without an official notice, will not be accepted.

Course Communication: See top of syllabus for contact information and office hours. I am available to answer questions during class, as well as before and after lab, and during class time. In addition, I am available during office hours or by appointment.
Basic Project Guidelines:

Production 1: Editing exercise with Adobe Premiere- Importing raw footage, adding transitions, name plate, and fade ending. This is an opportunity to become familiar with the software and experienced in importing exporting your work. Individual project to create a 30 second edited piece. Worth 10% of final grade

Production 2: Public Service Announcement, to be produced with a partner. The two-person team will decide on a topic, write a 60 second spot for television, shoot and edit the PSA for an in-class presentation. (Worth 10% of final grade)

Production 3: Corporate Video, to be completed individually. Each person will research an organization on campus or business off campus and produce a 3-4 minute corporate video emphasizing promotion, recruitment or training for the organization or business. Production 2 will involve extensive pre-production work, including concept creation, location scouting, script writing, interviewing, and technically competent shooting and editing. Each person will give a presentation before a class screening of the completed video production. (Worth 15% of final grade)

Weekly Quizzes: These multiple choice quizzes will be based on the reading materials, lectures and films viewed in the previous weeks of class. (Worth 15% of final grade)

Final Exam: Based on the reading materials, lectures and films viewed in class. The final exam will cover all of the lectures and readings given since the midterm exam and will be multiple choice. (Worth 20% of final grade)

Required Lab Exercises: (Worth 25% of final grade)

Studio Crew Positions Rotating Assignment: This assignment will be done in groups of 7 and 8. Each student will rotate crew positions in the television studio.

Visual Writing Assignment: This assignment will be done individually. Each student will develop a storyboard and write a pitch and treatment for a Public Service Announcement.

Editing Assignments: These assignments will be done individually. Each student will film a series of shots then edit the scenes to build a story.

Reflections: Continual written reflection will occur throughout the process of storytelling, during pre-production, production and post-production of the films. DVDs, scripts, treatments etc. will only be accepted in class.

Late work will not be accepted! Come to class on the due date ready to present.

Participation: You will be required to participate in discussions during class, as well as complete short in-class editing assignments in preparation for your final project.
