Course Description

In this course we will focus on the political and cultural history of Germany and Russia/Soviet Union during the 20th century and the complex relationship that existed between the two countries. During that century both countries demonstrated mutual cooperation, formed important alliances, became strategic partners, but also showed overt hostility. For Walter Laqueur Russian-German relations were one of the key issues in world affairs. To come to a better understanding of these relations we cannot only study German-Russian/Soviet diplomacy, but we also have to look at “what Germans and Russians thought about each other, their civilizations, ways of life, and political systems.” (Laqueur, 23) In this class we will look at the interplay of historical, political and cultural elements within each country and between the two.

Goals

Upon completion of this course, students will have a better understanding of the political and cultural history of Germany and Russia/Soviet Union in the 20th century and the complex relationship that existed between the two countries. Students will learn to critically evaluate primary and secondary sources (text, film, artifacts) orally and in writing. Students will also practice their writing skills in the target language.

Make-up work

If you miss the mid-term exam FOR ANY LEGITIMATE REASON (see p.150 Angelo State University Undergraduate Bulletin 2005-2007), you must contact us within two working days from the exam date or you will not be allowed to take the make-up test. No make-ups will be given for the final.

Quizzes

Quizzes follow each discussion session and cover a completed unit. Quizzes consist of ten short questions, which students will have to answer in the target language (either Russian or German).

Discussions

Discussions are composed of two parts:

- Homework assignment containing responses to questions pertaining to material covered during the preceding four class sessions. Students will have to complete these assignments in the target language (either Russian or German).
- Classroom discussion on the above mentioned sessions.

Participation

The participation grade will be based on a student’s attendance, his/her preparation for class and his/her active and constructive participation in classroom activities.

Academic Honor Code and Plagiarism

Plagiarism and any other form of cheating will not be tolerated. Assignments that are plagiarized will receive automatically the grade -0-.

Attendance

Regular and on-time class attendance is of the utmost importance in this class. Each student will be allowed two (2) absences. These absences can be either excused or unexcused. Each subsequent absence will result in a 5% deduction on the attendance/participation grade. An absence is no excuse for not knowing the material or not handing in the assignments. If you cannot hand in an assignment, ask another person to bring your assignment to us or to put it into our mailbox in A110. It is your responsibility to verify your standing (attendance/grades/etc.) should you have any questions.

Absence from Class for Religious Reasons

A student who intends to observe a religious holy day should make that intention known in writing to the instructor prior to the absence. A student who is absent from classes for the observance of a religious holy day shall be allowed to take an examination or complete an assignment scheduled for that day within a reasonable time after the absence.
