Course Description: The history and style of music from Bach through Wagner.

The purpose of the study of music history is to acquaint the student with the wide variety of musical styles, genres, composers, and repertoire throughout the course of music history.

Major Course Objectives:
- Gaining factual knowledge (terminology, classifications, methods, trends)
- Gaining a broader understanding and appreciation of intellectual/cultural activity
- Developing skill in expressing oneself orally or in writing

Student Learning Outcomes:
The student will:

- describe the general characteristics of each style period in music history
- identify composers and representative works from each of those periods

Student Assessment:
Student learning outcomes will be measured by chapter exams that may include, but are not limited to, the following components: a listening portion, a written portion (multiple choice, matching, short answer, etc.) and short essay. Students will also be assessed through two writing assignments, and other quizzes or shorter written assignments.
Class Evaluation: We will begin with Chapter 10 in the text and continue through Chapter 16. There will be one exam for every chapter. The content of the exams are described above under student assessment.

The grading breakdown for the course is as follows:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Percentage of Final Grade</th>

</tr>
<tr>

</tr>
<tr>

</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Your grade will be averaged and assigned according to the following scale:

- 100-90% = A
- 80-89% = B
- 70-79% = C
- 60-69% = D
- below 60% = F

The exams will be given roughly every three weeks. The proposed exam dates will be (subject to change):

- September 6  Exam #1
- September 25 Exam #2
- October 13   Exam #3
- October 27   Exam #4
- November 6   Exam #5
- November 20  Exam #6
- December 11  Exam #7 (Final Exam Slot 3:30- 5:30 pm)

Writing Assignment: We will be writing a research paper that will be a minimum of 5 (five) complete pages in length this Fall on a musical topic of your choosing (and my approval). Your final grade on this assignment will rest upon your writing. However, each of the steps below must also be completed as well. Failure to complete each of the following steps- by the assigned date- will result in an automatic grade of “F” for the assignment. Your writing must also be academically and grammatically sound to pass the paper. Mere completion of the assignment does no guarantee a passing grade. You will also be responsible for a program note writing assignment. Details will be provided in class for this assignment.

Components
1. Works cited- you will complete a works cited list, properly formatted, for ALL sources that you will potentially utilize in your paper.
2. Rough draft- you will turn in a rough draft of your paper.
3. Professor meeting- after I have graded and returned your rough draft, you will meet one on one with me so that we can discuss your paper and writing.

4. Final draft- you will turn in a final draft of your paper that has been vetted by the writing center.

Failure to complete any component of the paper will result in a failing grade for the writing assignment!

Class Attendance: According to the ASU Bulletin, p. 150,

“Students are expected to be present for all class meetings of the courses for which they are registered. An accurate record of attendance for each student must be maintained by the instructor.”

I will allow students two absences to account for university functions, illness, or any other reason. Students who accumulate three to five absences will be penalized by a reduction of their final grade by three points per absence. Six or more accumulated absences in the semester will constitute and automatic grade of F for the course. Students are responsible for material covered in class during their absence. If you are absent, make arrangements for lecture notes and handouts with your classmates. Please note: Failure to attend a full class period will be counted as an absence. This means that if you show up AFTER role is called, you are counted as absent. Finally, please be aware that class attendance also carries the expectation that you arrive having adequately prepared for that class by reading assignments, completing written assignments, actively listened to listening assignments, etc. It is also expected that ALL students participate in class discussions.

FINALLY!!!
You are expected to bring your textbook and anthology to each class meeting. If you fail to do so, you will be excused from class for that day and be given an absence for that class meeting.
