TEACHING STRATEGIES

- Students are encouraged to stay current on the readings and turn assignments in on time. This will benefit them and others as they seek to participate meaningfully in the course.
- Students are expected to be “active learners.” It is a basic assumption of the instructor that students will be involved (beyond the materials and lectures presented in the course) discovering, processing, and applying the course information using peer-review journal articles, researching additional information and examples on the Internet, and discussing course material and experiences with their peers.
- Students are asked to seek help early if they have problems, questions, or concerns during the semester. Every student has something unique to offer to the discourse. If students don’t come to class or refuse to engage others while in class, that decreases the diversity of the dialog for everyone.

GRADING SYSTEM

Course grades will be dependent upon completing course requirements and meeting the student learning outcomes. The following grading scale is in use for this course:

- A = 500-450 points
- B = 400-449 points
- C = 350-399 points
- D = 300-349 points
- F = 0-299 points (Grades are not rounded up)

ASSIGNMENT/ACTIVITY DESCRIPTIONS

- Learning Modules/Textbook are designed to give you an opportunity to learn, engage, clarify, and grapple with the basic concepts & principles of sociology.

- Videos/Articles/PPTs are presented to help clarify and enrich your understanding of sociology and supplement.

- Homework is designed to make you think critically about how course concepts relate to one another and to you. What forces have shaped who you are, what you believe, and how you live? How might your perspective differ from others? Do you strongly agree or disagree with this or that statement? Explain why you (dis)agree and support your own statements with good data, not just personal experience.

- Practice Quizzes for each book chapter are designed test your understanding of topics related to the textbook and reward you for reading chapters in a timely manner. These are open book and can be repeated once.

- In-Class Exams are designed to test your competence in the essential concepts & principles of sociology AND your ability to apply those concepts & principles to real world situations. These are closed book.
COMMUNICATING WITH THE PROFESSOR
In most cases, Dr. Simpson will respond to your email and/or telephone messages within 24 hours during working hours Monday through Friday. Weekend messages may not be returned until Monday.

Written communication via Blackboard: There is a discussion on the forum to ask questions.

Written communication via email: All private communication will be done exclusively through your ASU email address. Check frequently for announcements and policy changes. Please start your subject line with “SOC Intro” so your message does not get buried. I can search by that term instead of sifting through 300-400 emails.

Virtual communication: If we really need to “meet” we can use Blackboard’s Connect! feature.

STUDENT RESPONSIBILITY & ATTENDANCE
Students are expected to engage in course activities and submit work by due dates and times. The hope is that students will make substantive contributions which reflect integration of assigned materials as well as any outside readings as appropriate. Scholarly contribution is an expectation. For planning purposes, this class will probably require a minimum of 6-9 study hours per week on average.

ASSIGNMENT SUBMISSION
In this class, you must complete all of your work (except in-class exams) online through forum entries, Turnitin assignment submissions, or Blackboard practice quizzes. It is your responsibility to use a reliable computer (especially for quizzes) with a reliable connection and give yourself plenty of time to avail yourself of the multiple attempts offered. Since you have 2 attempts for tests and plenty of time to make forum entries, issues with technology should not affect your progress in this course. If a technology issue does occur that affects your progress, and you did not wait until the last minute to start a test or assignment, email the professor at shirley.simpson@angelo.edu explaining the issue. Attach a copy of the forum message you are trying to submit and/or a screen capture of any quiz-related error messages received if you have one. The professor is not under any obligation to reset quizzes.

LATE WORK OR MISSED ASSIGNMENTS POLICY

Homework & Quizzes: Late work will not be accepted. Missing homework or online practice quiz grades will convert to a zero after the deadline.

In-Class Exams: If you miss an In-Class Exam AND you have written documentation that the absence was unavoidable, you MUST do a make-up exam within 7 days of the absence or the grade will convert to a zero. Please be advised that you are only allowed to make-up ONE In-class exam. More than that defeats the purpose of in-class exams.

PROBLEM WITH A BLACKBOARD GRADE?

Check your grades regularly. If you do not have a score within a week of submission, receive a zero on an assignment you completed, or get a score you think is in error, please do NOT wait until the end of the semester to point it out. Send an email to me so I can check it for you.

Note: Since most of your assignments in this course will be digitally submitted, it is highly unlikely you will find errors on graded homework or quizzes.
GENERAL POLICIES RELATED TO THIS COURSE
All students are required to follow the policies and procedures presented in the following documents:

- Angelo State University Student Handbook located on the ASU website http://www.angelo.edu/student-handbook/
- ASU Undergraduate Catalog located on the ASU website https://www.angelo.edu/content/files/16795-201213-undergraduate-catalog

ACADEMIC HONESTY
Academic honesty is expected on all work. Students are expected to maintain complete honesty and integrity in their online experiences. Any student found guilty of any form of dishonesty in academic work is subject of disciplinary action and possible expulsion from ASU.

The Psychology & Sociology Department adheres to the academic honesty statement as set forth in the Angelo State University Student Handbook (2011-2012) http://www.angelo.edu/student-handbook/code-of-student-conduct/misconduct.php. The University "faculty expects all students to engage in all academic pursuits in a manner that is above reproach and to maintain complete honesty and integrity in the academic experience both in and out of the classroom setting and may initiate disciplinary proceedings against a student accused of any form of academic dishonesty, including but not limited to, cheating on an examination or other academic work, plagiarism, collusion, and the abuse of resource materials."

PLAGIARISM
Plagiarism at ASU is a serious topic. The Angelo State University’s Honor Code gives specific details on plagiarism and what it encompasses. Plagiarism is the action or practice of taking someone else's work, idea, etc., and passing it off as one's own. Plagiarism is literary theft.

In your discussions and/or your papers, it is unacceptable to copy word for word without quotation marks and the source of the quotation. We use the APA Style Manual of the American Psychological Association as a guide for all writing assignments. Quotes should be used sparingly. It is expected that you will summarize or paraphrase ideas giving appropriate credit to the source both in the body of your paper and the reference list. Papers are subject to be evaluated for originality via Bb Safe Assignment or Turnitin. Resources to help you understand this policy better are available at the ASU Writing Center http://www.angelo.edu/dept/writing_center/academic_honesty.php.
