GUIDE: The text - Wigg, Wankelman, W., Hasselschwert, J. (10th Edition) A Handbook of Arts and Crafts, McGraw Hill. ISBN: 0072317272 is NOT required for the course. Note: Although some lecture information corresponds with this text, the majority of information needed for tests comes from lectures. This is, however, a good book for educators.

ASSIGNMENTS: The student is expected to take accurate class notes and to organize and study the lecture material carefully. The student is also responsible for projects/papers. The student should develop a good visual memory of the works of art studied by memorizing the appropriate, corresponding illustrations in the study guides and by recalling the basic examples shown in class. By doing so one will find that it is much easier to remember facts with an associated image in mind. Do not email me asking for me to give you lecture material. Make a friend and use them as a note source.

CLASSROOM BEHAVIOR: Owing to the nature and size of this course, any noise, talking, or other distractions will not be tolerated. No headphones, cell phones, twittering or texting. No hoodies “up” as to hide headphones either.

ATTENDANCE: Class attendance is required by the University. If a student is unavoidably absent (i.e. serious illness, emergencies, etc.) sufficient reason should be given to the instructor by the next class that the student attends. Failure to provide such notification will result in a non-excused absence. Of course, excused absences only will be allowed for serious reasons, such as those mentioned above. Staying home with a head cold is not an excused absence. Three free absences are allowed for one semester of this course. For every absence thereafter, a letter grade will be deducted from their final grade. Six absences constitute an automatic “F.” Written verification of emergency may be required. Perfect attendance will earn you 5 bonus points added onto your final grade.

GRADES: There will be 2 tests, a sketchbook and a studio portfolio including a museum/art criticism paper. The last test (the final) will not be comprehensive. Each test will cover material only given since the last test. No make-up tests will be given without a paper trail excuse. If you miss test 4 (the final) then you will get a zero.

100-90 = A; 89-80 = B; 79-70 = C; 69-60 = D; 59-0 = F.

• To develop knowledge of teaching methods, strategies, processes, and materials for teaching art in the elementary classroom.
• To develop an elementary level art curriculum and appropriate lesson plans for carrying out that curriculum.
• To develop the ability to identify basic developmental stages exhibited in the artwork of children.
• To develop understanding of Disciplined Based Art Education (DBAE) and the four disciplines of art: Art Production, Art History, Aesthetics, and Art Criticism.
• To develop understanding of the language of art, commonly known as the elements and principles of design, apply them in studio production, and recognize them in the art works of others.
• To develop the ability to critically describe, analyze, interpret, and judge works of art.
• To develop the ability to recognize essential works of art from a variety of cultures and begin to appreciate their significance.

ACTIVITIES AND ASSIGNMENTS:
The student will participate in class discussions and cooperative learning activities, complete reading assignments and written learning assignments. The student will create quality art samples in a sketchbook representing the Elements and Principles of Design and visit an area Art Museum, and write an Art Criticism review. The students will maintain a sketchbook, create studio art productions that demonstrate basic concepts in art and organize these productions into a portfolio. Some degree of personalization per assignment can be discussed with the instructor. The student will create an art lesson plan and demonstrate the project in front of the class. Students will be expected to complete all assignments in a PROFESSIONAL manner. Although we will be designing and practicing elementary level art lessons, the artwork produced should look like an adult created it.

• All written assignments (excluding activity sheets) MUST BE TYPED, 12 Point, double spaced and include a separate title page. Hand written papers will only be accepted for same day essays.
• Plagiarism is unprofessional and unacceptable! Students will be expected to rewrite and rephrase any original text (including Internet sources).
