Students will complete required observations during some Friday class periods.
Observation dates will be discussed in class.

Course Description: This course explores the influences of society, culture, political issues, family, and experiences on personal identity and learning success, with special emphasis on the development of social competence and self-discipline. The course also looks at the culture of schools and classrooms. The course includes a required field experience component that includes 10 clock hours of observation in a day care facility with a variety of settings and diverse student populations.

Instructional Methods: Lecture, group activities, class discussion, and field observations.

Materials:
• Lecture notes for all chapters are posted in the Content section of our course on Blackboard. Notes may be copied or bookmarked on a laptop or iPad. Please bring the notes to class.
• Textbooks will also be needed for class.
• Notebook, pens, highlighter.

Course Requirements:
• Complete all written assignments
• Complete all reading assignments
• Participate in all in-class group activities
• Complete field experience
• Complete all exams as scheduled
• Check Blackboard and ASU email daily for class information
Field Experience: Completion of the 10 hour field experience is required to pass the course. The observations are to be completed in a childcare facility (not in a public school or Head Start program).

- Ten written observations and reflections must be completed and submitted on Blackboard.
- Observations will be submitted two different times during the semester. Observations 1-5 and Observations 6-10 will be due as noted on the course calendar.
- Timesheets are required and must be signed by the teacher or director of the childcare facility after each observation (a completed timesheet with teacher/director signature is required for field experience credit).

Assignments: There are individual assignments to be completed out of class on dates specified.

Assignments need to be completed and turned in on the date due. Due dates can be found under Assignments on Blackboard and also on the class schedule. Assignments must be submitted on Blackboard. Each will be graded and the grade posted on Gradebook of Blackboard.

Exams, Quizzes, & Activities:

- There will be a mid-term exam and a final exam.
- There may be unannounced chapter quizzes. You must be in attendance the day a quiz is given. Each quiz is worth 5 points. If you are absent the day of the quiz, you will receive no points.
- In lieu of a quiz on any given day, small group activities may be utilized. Credit is only given for any of these activities if you are in attendance that day.

WRITTEN ASSIGNMENTS: You should adhere to the American Psychological Association Publication Manual (APA) when completing any written assignment or project submitted for evaluation. The APA Manual is available at the ASU Library, bookstore, or on line at www.apa.org.

All written projects should be of the highest professional quality. This includes:

- Typed, doubled-spaced, and stapled.
- Submitted on time.
- Edited: It is your responsibility to edit your work. As future teachers, you must exhibit excellent examples of both oral and written communication.

Always check for the following:

- Typographical errors
- Spelling
- Syntax
- Grammar
- Punctuation
- Format, including citations
- Visual presentation/professional quality

Grading Policy: Grades will be given on a 300 point scale. Letter grades will be awarded as follows—

Please refer to ASU policy OP10.04 Academic Regulations Concerning Student Performance at http://www.angelo.edu/opmanual/s10 for more information.

Attendance Policy:

- Students are expected to attend each scheduled class session
- Students are expected to be on time for each class
- Attendance will be taken at the beginning of each class session
- Students should notify the instructor by email if they must be absent from class

Accommodations for Students with Disabilities: Persons seeking accommodations must contact the Student Life Office, Room 112, University Center (942-2191), in order to request such accommodations prior to any accommodations being implemented. Students are encouraged to make this request early in the semester so that appropriate arrangements can be made. For more information see ASU policy OP10.15 at http://www.angelo.edu/opmanual/s10.

Academic Honesty: Students are to be familiar with the ASU Handbook (available in print and web versions) and the University Honor Code which includes the “Student Academic Honor Code of Statement”. Students are to adhere to ASU policy. Angelo State University expects its students to maintain complete honesty and integrity in their academic pursuits. www.angelo.edu/cstudent/documents/pdf/Student-Handbook.pdf.

Plagiarism or the use of internet web prepared papers is strictly forbidden. Faculty utilizes internet search links that assist in identifying plagiarized materials. ASU policy regarding plagiarism can be found at http://www.lib.utexas.edu/services/instruction/learningmodules/plagiarism/index.html.

Cell Phone Policy: Cell phones must be turned off and out of sight. Use of cell phones during class is disrespectful and distracting. Please see instructor if there is an emergency.

Withdrawal from Course: Be informed about the withdrawal policy of Angelo State University and utilize this only if you believe you are unable to complete the course term successfully. Please check the academic calendar for the last day to drop a course.
