You should always be aware of your current course grade, which is shown as your Weighted Total on Bb/Grades. Please note that your grades are weighted, which means that your final course grade is different from the arithmetic mean. Teacher candidates have to have a grade of C or better in this class to count toward certification (ASU OP10.04 Academic Regulations Concerning Student Performance http://www.angelo.edu/opmanual/#s10)

Contextual Factors Assignment

You will make yourself knowledgeable about the specific conditions of the students who you will be teaching. See Bb for specific instructions, requirements and expectations. This assignment is directly related to the Reflexive Teacher Assignment below.

Professional Roles & Responsibilities Assignments

You will familiarize yourself with the Teacher Code of Conduct, understand the danger of ethics being a gray area rather than black and white, and reflect on an ethical dilemma. See Bb for specific instructions, requirements and expectations.

Further, throughout the semester you will make experiences that will shape your individual vision for your future classrooms. In this final assignment, you will have to craft your personal vision for what education ought to make possible and how you plan to contribute to that.
See Bb for specific instructions, requirements and expectations.

Article Assignment

You will choose five articles on diverse educational topics from newspapers around the country and the world that I provide you with. You will reflect on the educational issues at hand.
To reflect means to make meaning of things in their connection to other things. In other words, rather than agreeing or disagreeing with something, say what things mean to you. Once you have clarified that, think about the “so what?”

Reflexive Teacher Assignment

Based on your Contextual Factors Assignment above, you will design a lesson, analyze student learning, and evaluate the effectiveness of your teaching. See Bb for specific instructions, requirements and expectations.

Weekly Journals

You will choose one of the books listed above and read it throughout the semester. Each Sunday night by midnight, you will post a journal (Bb/Journals) in which you briefly reflect on the reading. There is no specific length or format as long as you do not summarize. Reflect on how the reading makes sense with what you already know, never knew, experienced, observed in a classroom, have been thinking about, are afraid of, etc.

Course Policies

Attendance

This is a 100% online course. This means that attendance is measured in the way you reply to emails. Be sure to check them daily and reply within 24 – 48 hours.

Assignments

Assignments are due by midnight on Sundays. Please check Bb/Assignment Due for specific dates. All assignments are to be submitted through Bb only. The professor reserves the right to return, for resubmission, any work that is not neatly, legibly, and professionally submitted in APA format. In addition, assignments containing multiple spelling, usage, and/or mechanics errors will be returned for revision upon the discretion of the professor, or a reduced grade may be assigned.

Late Work
One letter grade will be deducted for all late work. Late work is considered only if turned in within one day from the date it was due.

ASU Policies

Academic Honesty

Angelo State University expects its students to maintain complete honesty and integrity in their academic pursuits. Plagiarism and cheating are grounds for dismissal from this class. You are responsible for understanding the Academic Honor Code, which is contained in both print and web versions of the Student Handbook. (www.angelo.edu/cstudent/documents/pdf/Student_Handbook.pdf)

Persons Seeking Accommodations

Persons with disabilities, which may warrant academic accommodations, must contact the Student Life Office, Room 112 University Center, in order to request such accommodations prior to any accommodations being implemented. Candidates are encouraged to make this request early in the semester so that appropriate arrangements can be made. OP 10.15 Providing Accommodations for Students with Disabilities
