Accommodations
“Angelo State University is committed to the principle that no qualified individual with a disability shall, on the basis of disability, be excluded from participation in or denied the benefits of the services, programs, or activities of the university, or be subjected to discrimination by the university, as provided by the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990 (ADA), the Americans with Disabilities Act Amendments Act of 2008 (ADAAA), and subsequent legislation.”
The Office of Student Affairs is the designed campus department charges with the responsibility of reviewing and authoring requests for reasonable accommodations based on disability, and it is the student’s responsibility to initiate such a request by contacting the Office of Student Affairs, University Center, Room at (325) 942-2047 OR (325) 942-2211 (TDD/fax) or by email requirements necessary for the various types of disabilities. Reasonable accommodations will be made for students determined to be disabled or who have documented disabilities.

Academic Honor Code
Academic honesty is expected on all work. Students are expected to maintain complete honesty and integrity in their online experiences. Any student found guilty of any form of dishonesty in academic work is subject of disciplinary action and possible expulsion from ASU.

The Department of Kinesiology adheres to the academic honesty statement as set forth in the Angelo State University Student Handbook (2015-2016) https://www.angelo.edu/student-handbook/code-of-student-conduct/misconduct.php. The University “faculty expects all students to engage in all academic pursuits in a manner that is above reproach and to maintain complete honesty and integrity in the academic experience both in and out of the classroom setting and may initiate disciplinary proceedings against a student accused of any form of academic dishonesty, including but not limited to, cheating on an examination or other academic work, plagiarism, collusion, and the abuse of resource material.”

Observance of Religious Holy Days
“A student who intends to observe a religious holy day should make that intention known in writing to the instructor prior to the absence.
I, __________________________ have read the above syllabi information and understand my responsibilities and role in this class. Any questions I had were asked and answered by the instructor.
