Student Learning Outcomes

When you complete this course, you should be able to:

- Describe how software can interact with and participate in various systems including information management, embedded, process control, and communications systems. [Familiarity]
- Describe the relative advantages and disadvantages among several major process models (e.g., waterfall, iterative, and agile). [Familiarity]
- Describe the different practices that are key components of various process models. [Familiarity]
- Differentiate among the phases of software development. [Familiarity]
- Describe how programming in the large differs from individual efforts with respect to understanding a large code base, code reading, understanding builds, and understanding context of changes. [Familiarity]
- Explain the concept of a software lifecycle and provide an example, illustrating its phases including the deliverables that are produced. [Familiarity]
- Compare several common process models with respect to their value for development of particular classes of software systems taking into account issues such as requirement stability, size, and non-functional characteristics. [Usage]

Course Delivery

This is a face-to-face course with learning resources and supplemental materials posted in Blackboard.

Required Text and Materials

- Software Engineering \(Tenth Edition\) by Ian Sommerville (2015) ISBN – 978-0-13-394303-0
  - Presentations, Videos
- Various other references supplied by the instructor

Technology Requirements

You can complete quizzes and exams during class time. You can use a computer in class and use a normal browser to complete quizzes, and use the Respondus Lockdown Browser to complete exams. However, it will almost certainly be helpful to have a computer that you can use outside of class to complete course project that requires developing software using your team’s choice of programming language and its development environment, and also preparing and submitting project reports via GitHub and Blackboard.

- Blackboard: You are required to follow the posts and study all material posted on Blackboard.
- Computer: You must have access to an adequate computer and Internet connectivity to participate fully in the class. A table describing supported browsers can be viewed on Blackboard's support site<sup>1</sup>.

Communication

You are responsible for checking your ASU email account and Blackboard throughout the duration of this course.

I will generally respond to email and/or telephone messages within 24 hours during working hours Monday through Saturday. However, weekend messages may not be returned until Monday.

Written communication via email: All private communication will be done exclusively through your ASU email address. Check frequently for announcements and policy changes. In your emails to faculty, include the course name and section number in your subject line in the form of “[CS 4306] subject matter”.

Virtual communication: Office hours and/or advising may be done with the assistance of the telephone, Collaborate, Skype, etc.

Grading

Evaluation and Grades

Your course grade will be based on the following:

Activity	Percentage
Assignments	10%
Discussions	10%
Exams	30%
Project	50%

ASU employs a letter grade system. Grades in this course are determined on a percentage scale:

Grade	Percentage
A	90 – 100
B	80 – 89
C	70 – 79
D	60 - 69
F	0 - 59

Activity Descriptions

Assignments – need to be completed on time and submitted through Blackboard. No late submission will be accepted unless a reasonable excuse is provided by the student.

Discussions – Blackboard discussions, and contribution to discussions will be graded, by ranking based on the total contributions.

Exams – You will be given several exams on the topics that we have covered. Exams will be on Blackboard.

Project will be completed throughout the semester as a team. Teams will consist of 2-3 students. Project deliverables with deadlines will be announced at the beginning of the class.

Required Use of Masks/Facial Coverings by Students

As a member of the Texas Tech University System, Angelo State University has adopted the mandatory Facial Covering Policy<sup>10</sup> to ensure a safe and healthy classroom experience. Current research on the COVID-19 virus suggests there is a significant reduction in the potential for transmission of the virus from person to person by wearing a mask/facial covering that covers the nose and mouth areas. Therefore, in compliance with the university policy students in this class are required to wear a mask/facial covering before, during, and after class. Faculty members may also ask you to display your daily screening badge as a prerequisite to enter the classroom. You are also asked to maintain safe distancing practices to the best of your ability. For the safety of everyone, any student not appropriately wearing a mask/facial covering will be asked to leave the classroom immediately. The student will be responsible to make up any missed class content or work. Continued non-compliance with the Texas Tech University System Policy may result in disciplinary action through the Office of Student Conduct.

Modifications to the Syllabus

This syllabus, including grade evaluation and course schedule, is subject to modification. In particular, the COVID-19 pandemic may require significant changes in course delivery and content on potentially short notice.
