Office Hours: MW 1 – 3PM, TR 2 – 4PM, and by appointment.

Introduction to Art is designed as an introduction to the foundational principles of the visual arts and their history. The course addresses fundamental questions regarding the meaning, purpose and style of art, and also surveys important works of art and architecture from major historical periods in cultures across the globe.

OBJECTIVES:

In ARTS 1301, you will gain an introductory knowledge of the basic principles of art: its formal qualities, its history, and its significance in human cultures. Upon completing the course, you will be able to recognize primary themes and subjects in the art of various cultures and historical periods, and relate works of art to human history. You will have acquired a basic understanding of the vocabulary of art, as well as of the principles of design, and gained an informed appreciation for various methodological and theoretical approaches to the study of the arts.

This course satisfies the Creative Arts core curriculum requirement.

THECB CREATIVE ARTS CORE OBJECTIVE:

The objective of the creative arts in a core curriculum is to expand the student's knowledge of the human condition and human cultures, especially in relation to behaviors, ideas, and values expressed in works of human imagination and thought. Through study in disciplines such as the creative arts, students will engage in critical analysis, form aesthetic judgments, and develop an appreciation for arts as fundamental to the health and survival of any society.

THECB CORE CURRICULUM COMPONENT AREA OBJECTIVES:

- Critical Thinking Skills (CT): to include creative thinking, innovation, inquiry, and analysis, evaluation and synthesis of information;
- Communication Skills (CS): to include effective development, interpretation and expression of ideas through written, oral and visual communication;
- Teamwork (T): to include the ability to consider different points of view and to work effectively with others to support a shared purpose or goal;

- Social Responsibility (SR): to include intercultural competence, knowledge of civic responsibility, and the ability to engage effectively in regional, national, and global communities.

ASU CREATIVE ARTS CORE STUDENT LEARNING OUTCOMES AND METHODS FOR ASSESSMENT:

Upon completion of this course, students should be able to:

1. Identify and describe a body or works (individually and collectively) in the creative arts.
2. Analyze and summarize aesthetic principles that structure creative works.
3. Explain and differentiate creative works as expressions of values within cultural and historical contexts.

Methods for assessing these expected learning outcomes:

- Three multiple choice exams
- Exhibition review
- In-class assignments/quizzes
- Class discussion

RECOMMENDED TEXT:

COURSE FORMAT, ATTENDANCE, AND PARTICIPATION:

All components of this course will be delivered online. Students will access and complete all course content, readings, activities, and assessments through Blackboard. It is crucial that students log on to Blackboard regularly to keep up with course material, assignments, evaluations, and important announcements. Although students will work through the materials at their own pace (there are no virtual lectures or other synchronous activities), they should be sure to check the class schedule and weekly announcements for assignment due dates and exams. The "Online Learning Resources" section on Blackboard contains valuable information about navigating Blackboard for your reference. If you have any problems logging on to Blackboard, or with any of its functions, please contact IT support and me immediately.

The on-going COVID-19 pandemic poses a wide variety of challenges – both foreseen and unforeseen – to students, faculty, and university administrators alike. If you encounter any issues that interfere with your ability to complete this course, such as you or a loved one falling ill, a change in living situation, work schedule, or caregiving responsibilities, financial hardship, or mental health crisis, please do not hesitate to reach out to me. The help I can offer may be limited, but I am happy to work with you however I can.

INCOMPLETE AND PROLONGED ABSENCE:

A grade of incomplete can only be granted for documented health and family purposes. In the event of prolonged illness, please contact me personally or have a family member contact me as soon as possible. Furthermore, it is the student's responsibility to contact the Dean of Student Life at 325-942-2193 and document your circumstance.

UNIVERSITY COURSE WITHDRAWAL POLICY:

The last day to drop a course or to totally withdraw from the University will be Thursday, April 28, 2022. Withdrawal grades will be indicated by W. Any student who withdraws from the course after this date will receive a failing (F) grade for the course.

ADA COMPLIANCE:

Persons with disabilities which may warrant academic accommodations must contact the Student Life Office, Garden Level, University Center, 325-942-2191, in order to request such accommodations prior to any accommodations being implemented. You are encouraged to make this request early in the semester so that appropriate arrangements can be made.
