

Alyson Sanders
Student Research Assistant

Alyson Sanders, who comes from Lubbock, Texas, graduated Cum Laude from Sam Houston State University in May of 2008 with a B.A. in History and is currently working toward her M.A. in History at ASU. Her research interests include England and the British Commonwealth as well as Medieval English Literature. Prior to coming to Angelo State, she volunteered her time in the historic archives of College Station for two years and during that time received the Presidential Volunteer Service Award from the Points of Light Foundation twice. Alyson is the president of the ASU chapter of the History Honor Society, Phi Alpha Theta. She is working with CDI and the local NAACP to provide a history of this chapter for the 100th Anniversary of the National NAACP as well as organizing their archives for future reference.