

Randy Martin
Former Student Research Assistant

Randy Martin hails from Rock Hill, South Carolina. While at Angelo State University he worked toward a degree in History. Randy is a veteran of the U.S. Army. He served in Iraq in support of Operation Enduring Freedom in 2005 and worked at the U.S. Embassy in Addis Ababa, Ethiopia in 2007. Randy worked on the Social Capital Indicators Project for CDI. After the fall 2009 semester he decided to return to the military as a career.