1. By approving, the department head attests to having taken the following action: (a) discussed the proposed change with the appropriate members of the department and with heads of the affected departments, (b) conferred with the Registrar, and (c) connected any proposed new program to the University Mission Statement.

2. All proposals that are not approved are to be returned to the head of the proposing department with comment and with notification to the appropriate college dean(s).

3. These signatures are needed only for changes listed under Changes for the Curriculum Committee.

4. Changes involving teacher certification programs.

5. Changes in graduate curricula.

Revised 04/09
IV. Names of programs or majors affected by the change: BS Interdisciplinary Studies EC-6 Generalist, EC-6 Generalist with Special Education, (EC-12), 4-8 Generalist, 4-8 English, Language Arts and Reading, 4-8 Math, 4-8 Social Studies

b. Justification for Change:
This is a request to increase the required credit hours from 2 to 3. As a result of NCATE findings and our work on analyzing our standards matrices, faculty understand the need for including additional pedagogy such as lesson design, assessment, integration, differentiation and technology into existing course work. By restructuring ED2202 additional pedagogy that is fundamental to all teacher education courses can be achieved.
