ED 4315 The Elementary School: Organization and Management
W - 3:00-5:00 p.m., CARR 101

Course Description: The organization and management of the elementary school, district classroom management policies, policies on the assessment of teachers, and legal and ethical aspects of teaching will be studied. A minimum of twenty-five clock-hours of field experience in an accredited elementary classroom is required. Concurrent registration in Ed 4317 and student teaching is required. This is a web-blended course.

Required Text: The Teacher’s Guide to Success – Ellen L. Kronowitz
Discipline with Dignity – Curwin, Mendler, & Mendler

Acquire and read both textbooks prior to the beginning of the semester. Online assignments and discussions will be posted weekly throughout the semester.

Course Goals: Bridge the gap between undergraduate theory and information in education classes to the teaching practicum in the classroom. Support transition from being the student to a professional in the education field.

TExES Competencies/Standards: The period of student teaching is critical in the development of understandings and practices of all the Competencies and Standards of a professional educator. Many of the competencies are acquired and refined; however, Education 4315 particularly addresses the following:

Standard II.
2.1 the importance of creating a learning environment in which diversity and individual differences are respected;
2.2 the impact of teacher-student interactions and interactions among students on classroom climate and student learning and development; and 2.3 ways to establish a positive classroom climate that fosters active engagement in learning among students.

2.6 how classroom routines and procedures affect student learning and achievement;
2.9 procedures for managing transitions from one activity or lesson to another;
2.10 routines and procedures for managing and using materials, supplies, and technology
2.13 theories and techniques relating to managing and monitoring student behavior;
2.16 the importance of establishing classroom standards of student conduct and clear consequences for inappropriate behavior;
2.18 appropriate responses to a variety of student behaviors and misbehaviors.

Standard IV.
The teacher fulfills professional roles and responsibilities and adheres to legal and ethical requirements of the profession. The beginning teacher knows and understands: 4.1 the importance of families’ involvement in their children’s education; and 4.2 appropriate ways for working and communicating effectively with families in varied contexts.
4.7 the various ways in which teachers may contribute to their school and district;
4.9 the importance of participating in professional development activities to enhance content knowledge and pedagogical skill;
4.10 the importance of documenting self-assessments;
4.12 the importance of using reflection and ongoing self-assessment to enhance teaching effectiveness.
