Curriculum and Instruction Department
NCATE Standard 5d. Modeling Best Practices in Service

5d.2. In what types of service activities are faculty members engaged? Provide examples of faculty service related to practices in P-12 schools and service to the profession at the local, state, national, and international levels (e.g. through professional associations). What percentage of the faculty is actively involved in these various types of service activities?

A. Service related to P-12 schools:

Dr. Amy Williamson:
- Developed Field Experience mentoring and monitoring program in collaboration with San Angelo Independent School District
- Created for ASU the Texas State Teachers Association Student’s organization and serves as the sponsor.
- Developed and coordinated the ASU symposium on Student Teacher Preparation.

Dr. Kim Livengood:
- Staff Development Workshop, for Sex Education Instructors, Shannon Medical Center and San Angelo ISD
-
-

Dr. Jim Summerlin:
- Staff Development Workshop, for Sex Education Instructors, Shannon Medical Center and San Angelo ISD
- Participant in First Generation student development program – designed to smooth the entrance into college for students who are the first generation in their family to attend college.

Dr. David Traver:
- Staff Development Workshop, for Sex Education Instructors, Shannon Medical Center and San Angelo ISD
-
-

B. Service related to the profession at local, state, national and international levels:

Dr. Amy Williamson:
- Member-at-large of the Association for Supervision & Curriculum Development, Leadership Council.
- Editorial reviewer for the Journal of Teacher Education

Dr. Jim Summerlin:
- Member of the university’s Pre-SACS committee.
- NCATE committee member
- Authored the SPA report for Educational Leadership for NCATE
- Member and participant in CSOTTE

Dr. Alaric Williams:
• Sponsor of the ASU Student Government organization, Angelo State University
• Elected Angelo State University
• Search Committee Member, Department of Curriculum and Instruction
• Scholarship Committee, Department of Curriculum and Instruction

Dr. Mary McGlamery:

•
•
•

Dr. David Tarver

• Participant in Texas Educator Exchange sponsored by the Texas Education Agency, sharing information and programs on teacher preparation and certification for South Korean teachers.
• NCATE Advisory Committee
•

A. Service related to P-12 schools:

Dr. Juliet M. Ray:

• Serve as Secretary for Monroe May Elementary PTA in Northside ISD
• Serve as Arts in Education Chairperson for Katherine Stinson Middle School PTA in Northside ISD
• Serve as Arts in Education Chairperson for the Northside Council of PTAs
• Presented at the Bilingual Education Research Colloquium that was presented to educators from local school districts. May 2009.

B. Service related to the profession at local, state, national and international levels:

Dr. Juliet M. Ray:

• Support graduate student learning by attending bi-monthly Journal Club meetings
• Member, Higher Education Administration Student Association
• Instituted "Pathways to Knowledge Showcase", a monthly opportunity for faculty to share their research findings along with tips for garnering outside funding
• Instituted "Research Dialogues", a monthly opportunity for faculty to share information on research methodologies
• Presentations Reviewer for: