

Honors Advantage Scholarship Acceptance Form

Honors Advantage Scholarship Eligibility

1. Conditions for receiving a scholarship
  - a. Enter the ASU Honors Program as a high school graduate who has not matriculated into any other college following high school graduation.
  - b. Submit your honors application by the priority deadline as stated on the Honors Program website at <http://www.angelo.edu/dept/honors/index.html>.
  - c. 1300 SAT/29 ACT
  - d. Indicate that you are interested in the Texas Tech Honors College Pre-Med Early Acceptance or Pre-Law Early Decision programs when you submit your application to the Honors Program.
  - e. Commit to attending the Texas Tech law or Medical School upon graduating from the ASU Honors Program and being accepted by the applicable professional school.
  - f. Complete a selection interview if asked to do so.
2. Conditions for maintaining eligibility for the scholarship
  - a. Remain in the ASU Honors Program.
  - b. Maintain a 3.5 cumulative GPA at ASU.
  - c. Maintain eligibility to participate in the Texas Tech Honors College Pre-Med Early Acceptance or Pre-Law Early Decision programs as described at the following URLs
    - i. http://www.depts.ttu.edu/honors/earlyacc\_med.php (medical)
    - ii. http://www.depts.ttu.edu/honors/earlyacc\_law.php (law)
    - iii. IMPORTANT: In order to maintain eligibility for the Pre-Med Early Acceptance program and scholarship, students must not take the MCAT exam since this is waived as an entrance requirement for this program.
  - d. Visit with the appropriate pre-professional advisor each semester during the student advising period.
  - e. Contact the designated Texas Tech Honors College advisor (Cheryl Carroll) each semester to make sure that all of the requirements for participation in the program are being satisfied.

Student Signature

By signing this document I am indicating that I will abide by the requirements stated above in exchange for receiving an Honors Advantage Scholarship.

---

Student Name

---

Student Signature

---

Date