Point Values and Description for Assignments and Examinations:

Class Participation 10%

This is relevant to attendance and engaging in class activities, including frequency and quality of participation.

Examinations 40%

There will be four (4) examinations in this course. Each of these examinations is worth 10% of your total course grade.

Research Paper 30%

Students will write a research proposal or program evaluation proposal containing the following elements:

- I. Cover Page
- II. Abstract
- III. Introduction
- IV. Literature Review (brief; however, you may have more than one subsection here)
- V. Recommendations and Conclusions
- VI. References

The research paper will conform to the standards of the Publication Manual of the American Psychological Association, 6th Edition (2010). The length of the research paper may vary, but should be no less than 6 pages, not including the cover sheet and reference pages.

Plagiarism is the presentation of someone else's information as though it were your own. If you use the words or ideas of another person; or if you use material from any source--whether a book, journal, magazine, newspaper, business publication, broadcast, speech, electronic media, or any other source--you must acknowledge that source. Plagiarism on the research proposal or program evaluation proposal paper will result in the student not receiving credit for her/his paper.

Presentation of Assignment 20%

A 5 minute presentation will be given regarding the subject chosen for the research paper. The presentation must cover the pertinent information of the research. Pros and cons of said research and recommendations should also be covered. More information regarding presentations will be given as the class progresses.
