

Grant Title	Community-Based Job Training Grants
Funding Agency/Sponsor	United States department of Labor (DOL)
Abstract	Community-Based Job Training Grants will be awarded through a competitive process to support workforce training for high-growth industries through the national system of community and technical colleges. The primary purpose of these grants is to build the capacity of community colleges to train workers to develop the skills required to succeed in (1) local industries and occupations that are expected to experience high growth and (2) industries where demand for qualified workers is outstripping the supply. Funds will be awarded to community colleges to engage in a combination of capacity building and training activities targeted at high-growth or high-demand industries in the local economy.
Eligibility	In order to be eligible for consideration under this solicitation, the applicant must be a publicly funded institution of higher education that grants associate degrees.
Funding Type	Program or Curriculum Development or Provision
