

ANNUAL SERVICE AWARD RECIPIENTS

MISSION STATEMENT:

The Angelo State University Police Department exists to serve the campus community. Our mission is to support the university's stated mission by helping to promote, create, and maintain a safe, secure, and enjoyable campus environment for all members of the university community and its guests.

ANGELO STATE UNIVERSITY

ORLANDO VILLARREAL

Patrol Division

Officer Villarreal began his service with the University Police Department in October 2008.

While attending the police academy, Orlando worked as a part time dispatcher. Upon successful graduation from the police academy, the University Police Department hired Orlando as a police officer.

Officer Villarreal is assigned to the patrol division and currently works the 3rd shift. Previously, Orlando worked for 7 years as an environmental specialist and investigator with the Texas Department of Transportation (TXDOT).

Officer Villarreal has specialized training in criminal interdiction, patrol narcotics investigations, surveillance techniques, forensic interviewing and is a certified Glock armorer.

2009- 2010 OFFICER OF THE YEAR

JUDY WILLIAMS COMMUNICATIONS DIVISION

Ms. Williams began her service with the University Police Department in March 2007.

Judy is assigned to the communications division and currently serves as a police dispatcher on the 1st shift.

Ms. Williams previously worked 16 years as a 911 operator for the City of San Angelo. Judy's experience in emergency communications is considered an outstanding asset to the department.

Ms. Williams assists the department in the training of new dispatchers as well as on-going training for other employees assigned to the communications division. Judy holds an intermediate telecommunications certification through the Texas Commission on Law Enforcement Officer Standards and Education (TCLEOSE). In addition, Judy has crisis communications training relevant to her duties as a dispatcher.
