

REWARD

On or about September 16, 2007, four students had their tires slashed while their vehicles were parked at Vanderventer Apartments and Texan Hall.

The University Police are offering a $250.00 reward which leads to the arrest and indictment of the person(s) responsible for this vandalism.

If you have any information regarding this incident, please call police at 942-2071.

Callers may also use the confidential tip line at 942-ACTT.

This reward is being offered in partnership with the Campus Crime Watch
