“Complete application” means: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>You have submitted your housing application on-line.</li> <li>You have paid your $100.00 non-refundable housing application fee.</li> <li>You have been officially admitted to ASU.</li> </ul> Roommate Request Process: Once you have applied for housing, you are automatically placed in the roommate request process. In your MyHousing, you are able to choose someone specific (if they have applied during your same time frame) or use the advanced roommate selection and find someone with your common interests. Things to keep in mind: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Requests must be mutual. You and your prospective roommate(s) must each log in to your separate MyHousing accounts and request each other.</li> <li>Roommate requests will override hall requests.</li> <li>Roommate requests MUST be participating in the same assignment process.</li> <li>If you don’t request a specific individual(s) as room or suitemates, you will be matched prior to being assigned to a room, based on the information you provided in your personal and building preferences.</li> </ul>	To view your room assignment and available roommate contact information: Log in to your MyHousing account on or after the date indicated. Your future roommate’s ASU email address will be included so that you may attempt to contact them ahead of time. Please note: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Some students, particularly first-time students, may not have activated their ASU email accounts yet. You may not get an immediate response, so please don’t assume that they don’t want to contact you.</li> <li>Room and roommate assignment information can change. This is particularly true for roommates and suitemates as students request changes or their plans to attend ASU change. Please check your assignment info periodically.</li> </ul>
