

Angelo State University Title IX Organizational Structure

Deputy Roles and Responsibilities:

1. Director of Title IX Compliance/Title IX Coordinator – Designated university official with the primary responsibility of coordinating the university’s compliance with Title IX; this official receives reports of alleged violations of ASU’s sexual misconduct policy and the Code of Student Conduct. The Director of Title IX Compliance/ Title IX Coordinator is responsible for coordinating and or performing investigations into these allegations and coordinating the adjudication of such allegations. The Director of Title IX Compliance/Title IX Coordinator is also responsible for training and organizing the Title IX Team. The Title IX Team is comprised of individuals who receive additional training and are considered the university’s Administrative Hearing Officers.
2. Deputy Student Conduct – Designated university official to assist with Title IX reports or investigations and oversees reports of alleged violations of ASU’s Code of Student Conduct. This official is also a member of the Title IX Team.
3. Deputy Athletic Equity – Designated university official responsible for Title IX compliance as it relates to athletic equity issues. This official ensures athletic equity by reviewing athletic compliance policies and procedures on a regular basis.
4. Deputy Human Resources – Designated university official responsible for Title IX compliance as it relates to ASU employees. This official works directly with the Director of Title IX Compliance/Title IX Coordinator to investigate and remedy any alleged violations of ASU’s Title IX policy involving employees.
5. Deputy Prevention & Education – Designated university official who partners with the Director of Title IX Compliance/Title IX Coordinator on organizing and implementing prevention and education on ASU’s campus.