Course Evaluation and Grading
Grading includes neatness, organization, creativity, and appropriateness of material to course content. Assignments should reflect your professional best as an educator and will be graded accordingly. Please edit for grammar and punctuation! Errors of 5 or more will result in a minimum of 5 points off grade for that assignment.
Assignments are due at the beginning of the class period. Late work is NOT accepted—NO WORK will be accepted after the original due date. Assignments receiving 70% or below may be re-submitted for grading, with 90% as the highest grade possible.
Assignments:

1. Content Literature Component (100 pts):
Candidates are expected to read children’s and adolescent books relating to social studies, science, math, health, the fine arts (art, dance, music), and English/language arts-at various reading levels (EC-8). Students will meet in Discussion Groups to discuss the books read in a specific content area. Each content area requires a 5A checklist.

2. Textbook Evaluation (50 pts):
Candidates will complete an in-depth examination of a content area textbook used in Texas schools in grades 3-8. This examination will include textual features, organizational patterns, readability formulas and checklists. Students will be expected to evaluate the instructional value of the text and plan for its use in instruction.

3. Interdisciplinary Content Area Unit Plan and Scripted Lesson (100 pts):
Each candidate will prepare an interdisciplinary unit plan over a topic that is commonly taught in grades 3-8 math, science, or social studies. This unit is the culminating course project and is intended to demonstrate student mastery of course content and strategies. The unit plan must be a minimum of 10 days in length and must include text selections from both textbooks and trade books (children’s/adolescent literature). From this plan, the candidate will select ONE lesson to prepare in a totally scripted manner.

4. Group Project (Inquiry/Research Lesson) 50 pts:
Candidates will work in groups of 3 or 4 to research a particular “topic” of their interest (science, social studies, math), then complete the “Critical Attributes of Research TEKs” template. In a “reflective” summary, each group member will indicate what they learned about “teaching research.”

5. Glossary/Vocabulary - (60 pts): According to the strategies covered in RDG 3332, you will prepare a digital Glossary/Vocabulary by Standard, and locate EC-6/4-8 TEKs that apply.

6. Exams – (300 points)
Three exams are planned throughout the course of the semester. These exams will take multiple formats, including multiple choice, matching, fill in the blank, listing, identification, application, and short essay.

7. Homework & Discussion Boards: Variety throughout the semester.
Attendance Policy  Candidates are to adhere to ASU policy OP 10.04 and Unit policy. http://www.angelo.edu/opmanual/#s10

Class attendance is a professional responsibility. Please be on time and plan to stay the entire class period. Attendance will be taken during each class period. There are no “excused” absences in this class as you are allowed two before any loss of attendance points. Each absence after the third absence results in 15 points off of Attendance Points.

ASU OP10.19 Student Absence for Observance of Religious Holy Day
http://www.angelo.edu/opmanual/#s10

ASU OP 10.15 Providing Accommodations for Students with Disabilities
http://www.angelo.edu/opmanual/#s10
Persons seeking accommodations must contact the Student Life Office, Room 112 University Center, 942-2191, in order to request such accommodations prior to any accommodations being implemented. Students are encouraged to make this request early in the semester so that appropriate arrangements can be made.

Academic Honesty
Candidates are to be familiar with the ASU Student Handbook and the University Honor Code, which includes the “Student Academic Honor Code Statement”
https://www.angelo.edu/content/files/17358-university-honor-code

Candidates are to adhere to ASU policy. Angelo State University expects its students to maintain complete honesty and integrity in their academic pursuits. Students are responsible for understanding the Academic Honor Code, which is contained in both print and web versions of the Student Handbook.

Specific conditions for courses taught in the Department for Teacher Education: At the first incident of plagiarism, the student will receive a zero (0) for the plagiarized assignment while this infraction will be noted on the student’s records. Should there be a second occurrence of plagiarism, the student will receive a final grade of “F” for the course and another infraction report will be added to the student's permanent records. Please see below for further guidance on Plagiarism.

Plagiarism
Plagiarism at ASU is a serious topic. The Angelo State University's Honor Code gives specific details on plagiarism and what it encompasses. Plagiarism is the action of taking someone else's work, idea, etc., and passing it off as one's own. Plagiarism is a literary theft. Since you will be evaluated using the ASU Department of Teacher Education – Candidate Professional Dispositions (a copy will be provided to you), please note the specifics under the “Ethics” section, which references the Code of Ethics for Texas Teacher Educators.
College of Education Electronic Communication Devices Policy: Cell phones, pagers, and other electronic communication devices are to be TURNED OFF during class time. IF you need to leave it on due to family emergency situations, please leave on VIBRATE.
