Office Hours: MW 9-11:30, TR 9-11, and by appointment

LECTURES: MWF 1 – 1:50, Carr 101

Introduction to Art is designed as an introduction to the foundational principles of the visual arts and their history. The course addresses fundamental questions regarding the meaning, purpose and style of art, and also surveys important works of art and architecture from major historical periods in cultures across the globe.

OBJECTIVES: In ARTS 1301, you will gain an introductory knowledge of the basic principles of art: its formal qualities, its history and its significance in human cultures. Upon completing the course, you will be able to recognize primary themes and subjects in the art of various cultures and historical periods, and relate works of art to human history. You will have acquired a basic understanding of the vocabulary of art, as well as of the principles of design, and gained an informed appreciation for various methodological and theoretical approaches to the study of the arts.

THECB Creative Arts Core Objective:

The objective of the creative arts in a core curriculum is to expand the student's knowledge of the human condition and human cultures, especially in relation to behaviors, ideas, and values expressed in works of human imagination and thought. Through study in disciplines such as the creative arts, students will engage in critical analysis, form aesthetic judgments, and develop an appreciation for arts as fundamental to the health and survival of any society.

THECB Core Curriculum Component Area Objectives:

- Critical Thinking Skills (CT): to include creative thinking, innovation, inquiry, and analysis, evaluation and synthesis of information;
- Communication Skills (CS): to include effective development, interpretation and expression of ideas through written, oral and visual communication;
- Teamwork (T): to include the ability to consider different points of view and to work effectively with others to support a shared purpose or goal;
- Social Responsibility (SR): to include intercultural competence, knowledge of civic responsibility, and the ability to engage effectively in regional, national, and global communities.
