The course begins Monday, August 27, and ends on Friday, December 14, 2018.

You must read the textbook. Not only will it help guide you through the course, it will provide essential tools in study and preparation.

The following computer and technology skills are required (for submitting reflection papers):

- Computer with MAC or Windows Operating System
- High Speed Internet Access
- Microsoft Office Word and Power Point
- High Speed Internet Connection
- Explorer 7 or later or Firefox 3.0 or later (MAC users must have Safari or later or Firefox 3.0 or later

LEARNING OBJECTIVES:

Our objectives in this course include, but are not limited to:

- To learn what Sociology is as a field of study and what it has to offer to society as a whole.
- To gain an understanding of the ways that social factors influence the various dimensions of behavior.
• Discussion and understanding of the major concepts of Sociology, as well as an overall understanding of sociological research and exploration.

REQUIRED TEXT:

CHAPTER QUIZZES (10) 25%: After each chapter lecture, a ten-question quiz will be given over the material. Quizzes will be worth 100 points; 25%.

INCOMPLETE GRADE POLICY
It is policy that incomplete grades be reserved for student illness or personal misfortune. Please contact faculty if you have serious illness or a personal misfortune that would keep you from completing course work. Documentation may be required.

POLICY ON MAKE-UP WORK
Examinations for un-excused absences will not be made up. Excused absences can warrant a make-up exam, only if scheduled by professor ahead of time.

STUDENT ABSENCE FOR OBSERVANCE OF RELIGIOUS HOLY DAYS
“A student who intends to observe a religious holy day should make that intention known in writing to the instructor prior to the absence.” Please see ASU Operating Policy 10.19.

Note: The last day to withdraw from this class with a “W” is Thursday, November 1, 2018.
ACADEMIC HONESTY
Academic honesty is expected on all work. Students are expected to maintain complete honesty and integrity in their online experiences. Any student found guilty of any form of dishonesty in academic work is subject of disciplinary action and possible expulsion from ASU.

The Department of Psychology, Sociology, and Social Work adhere to the academic honesty statement as set forth in the Angelo State University Student Handbook (2011-2012) http://www.angelo.edu/content/files/17358-university-honor-code. The University "faculty expects all students to engage in all academic pursuits in a manner that is above reproach and to maintain complete honesty and integrity in the academic experience both in and out of the classroom setting and may initiate disciplinary proceedings against a student accused of any form of academic dishonesty, including but not limited to, cheating on an examination or other academic work, plagiarism, collusion, and the abuse of resource materials."

STUDENTS WITH DISABILITIES
1. “Angelo State University is committed to the principle that no qualified individual with a disability shall, on the basis of disability, be excluded from participation in or be denied the benefits of the services, programs, or activities of the university, or be subjected to discrimination by the university, as provided by the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990 (ADA), the Americans with Disabilities Act Amendments Act of 2008 (ADAAA), and subsequent legislation.”

2. The Office of Student Affairs is the designated campus department charged with the responsibility of reviewing and authorizing requests for reasonable accommodations based on a disability, and it is the student’s responsibility to initiate such a request by contacting the Office of Student Affairs, University Center, Room 112 at (325) 942-2047 or (325) 942-2211 (TDD/FAX) or by e-mail at studentservices@angelo.edu to begin the process. The Office of Student Affairs will establish the particular documentation requirements necessary for the various types of disabilities.

Reasonable accommodations will be made for students determined to be disabled or who have documented disabilities.
