Weekly Quizzes

Quizzes cover that week’s material with a focus on the chapter reading and class lectures. Quizzes may be given in class or online, format to be announced at the beginning of the week. Online quizzes typically open on Wednesday of the week assigned. Online quizzes can be taken at any time after they open, but are always due at the end of the week assigned, by midnight Sunday. In class quizzes are given on Monday of following week. All quizzes are open book and open notes.

Quiz questions may be multiple choice, True/False, or short answer. Quizzes are timed so please prepare well for each test. Because each quiz is timed, familiarity with the material is key so pay attention to lectures, complete the chapter readings, and complete the assignments before attempting the quiz. Questions come from a test pool and will be ordered randomly. Collaboration with others on quizzes is not allowed. These are individual assignments.

If you are found to be collaborating with other students on a test or cheating on your test, you will receive an F in the class and might be dismissed from ASU.

Weekly Assignments
Weekly assignments vary and may include cases, projects, software assignments, short answers, essays, or exercises. Weekly assignments are normally graded within one week of the due date.

Attendance/in-class Discussion Questions
Students are expected to attend class. Absenteeism has been shown to negatively affect student academic performance. To earn the full attendance/in-class discussion question points students must attend class. Discussion questions may be assigned in class and counted as the attendance grade. Weekly attendance points may be counted on just one, or split between two, weekly class periods.

Final Exam
The final exam is comprehensive. The format will be multiple choice and short answer.

Assignment Deadlines and Missed/ Late Work
You are free to complete your work early; however, late work and missed work will not be accepted.

Email
Response to emails will normally be within 24 hours Monday through Friday. I am here because I want you to learn, so please consider me a resource.
