Required Text: Forney and Machlis, The Enjoyment of Music, 13 ed. with web access code

Course Description: A course designed to lead to a basic understanding and understanding of music. This section of the course is designated for music majors only.

Major Course Objectives:
- Gaining factual knowledge (terminology, classifications, methods, trends).
- Learning fundamental principles, generalizations, or theories
- Gaining a broader understanding and appreciation of intellectual-cultural activity (music, science, literature, etc.)

Student Learning Outcomes:
The students will be able to:
- demonstrate and apply appropriate knowledge in music history.
- to demonstrate awareness of the scope and variety of works in the arts and humanities.
- demonstrate knowledge of the fundamentals of music, its terminology, and its instruments.
- classify music’s stylistic periods, their characteristics, and representative composers and their works from each of these periods.
- differentiate between the most common structures (forms) of music.
- describe the historical, political, cultural and social trends throughout the periods studied as applies to music.

Student Assessment:
Student learning outcomes will be measured by:
- exams which will include written and listening portions
- participation in class discussions

Communication
Primarily, I will contact you by email. I send email to the email address that is assigned to you by ASU (i.e. your angelo.edu email address). It is your responsibility to read all emails that are posted and sent to your email. I recommend that you check your email once a day in case you get important information from the university and not just me.

Evaluation
There will be six exams over the course of the semester. These will be given online. In addition, your participation in class discussions (i.e. answering questions, demonstrating that you have read the assignments, etc.) will be a factor in your final grade. I fully expect that everyone in class engage in class discussions.
Six exams 80%
Class participation/quizzes 20%
total= 100%

We will use the 10% grading scale for our final grades. (90-100% = A; 80-89% = B, etc.)

Class Schedule/Content Covered

Class Attendance: According to the ASU Bulletin, p. 150,

“Students are expected to be present for all class meetings of the courses for which they are registered. An accurate record of attendance for each student must be maintained by the instructor.”

I will allow students two absences to account for university functions, illness, or any other reason. Students who accumulate three to five absences will be penalized by a reduction of their final grade by three percentage points per absence. Six or more accumulated absences in the semester will constitute and automatic grade of F for the course. Students are responsible for material covered in class during their absence. If you are absent, make arrangements for lecture notes and handouts with your classmates. Please note: Failure to attend a full class period will be counted as an absence. This means that if you show up AFTER role is called, you are counted as absent.

Help
There is considerable available help for you in this class.

- If you need help understanding the course content contact me. I will be happy to explain anything thing about the course content that you don’t get. That’s what I am here for, first and foremost. Email me at: jwomack@angelo.edu.
