Course Description:
This course is a comprehensive introduction to the coaching profession. Emphasis is placed on sport at the high school, serious club levels, youth, recreational, and intercollegiate sport programs. The primary goal of the course is to develop and enhance students' knowledge and understanding of concepts and techniques of coaching and their application to achieving important objectives in working with athletes.

Course Objectives:
1. Develop a philosophy & Identify the three major objectives of selecting a coaching style.
2. Examine principles for coaching with character, for developing good character and sportsmanship in athletes, and for coaching athletes who have diverse backgrounds, characteristics, and abilities.
3. Describe the principles and issues related to planning, organizing, staffing, and directing functions that are commonly considered a coach’s responsibilities.

ATTENDANCE
You are expected to attend each class and to be on time for the beginning of class.
Students are responsible for anything that happens in class during their absence. Notify the instructor at least one week in advance if you have a scheduling conflict that will cause you to miss class. You are responsible for asking the instructor about your attendance record so that you do not go over the allowed 3 absences and tardies. (2 tardies = 1 absence).
4 absences= minus a letter grade.
5 absences= minus another letter grade.
6 absences= minus another letter grade.
7 absences will result in failing the course.
Officially sanctioned college activities (athletics and competing academic duties) may be considered permissible absences if the student shows official documentation to the instructor a class period in advance of the absence.

Observance of a religious holy day may be considered permissible absences pending verification.

Students with Disabilities:
Persons with disabilities which may warrant academic accommodations must contact the Student Life Office, Room 112 University Center, in order to request such accommodations prior to any accommodations being implemented. You are encouraged to make this request early in the semester so that appropriate arrangements can be made.

Students with disabilities who request reasonable accommodations must meet with the Course Coordinator within the first week of classes. Reasonable accommodations will be provided as authorized by the Office of Disability Services as long as course requirements are not compromised. Faculty will provide no accommodations without authorization from the Office of Student Life. It is the student’s responsibility to be a self-advocate when requesting accommodations.

The Angelo State University Honor Code:
Our students believe that ASU students should maintain complete honesty and integrity in their academic pursuits.

The Honor Code at ASU is located at: www.angelo.edu/forms/pdf/honorcode5.pdf and describes expected academic behavior of both faculty and students, and it consists of an agreement between the student and the academic community to foster academic integrity, to value student educational goals, and to maintain the positive academic reputation of ASU. Angelo State University expects all students and faculty to engage in all academic pursuits in a manner that is above reproach and to maintain complete honesty and integrity in the academic experiences both in and out of the classroom.

ASU students and faculty will not participate or condone
- Plagiarism
- Cheating
- Fabrication of data
- Misrepresentation of information
- Misuse of library materials
- Misuse of technology
- Conspiring with others to commit these acts

ASU students are responsible for understanding the student handbook as well as the individual academic requirements and stipulations for each course. This includes carefully reading the Angelo State University Student Handbook and reading the syllabus of each course. Students should ask for clarification of any ambiguous aspect of the syllabus.

To facilitate this code of ethical conduct, ASU has an Academic Integrity Committee, a committee composed of both students and faculty, which has the responsibility of reviewing cases of suspected academic dishonesty which may be brought to it. The committee’s membership of students and faculty reinforces ASU’s commitment to academic integrity in and out of the classroom.
