English Composition II
Syllabus and Sequence

Overview and Expectations:

In the first 30 minutes of a ninety-minute class, students will read, narrate, and discuss how to apply what is learned from their resource texts. After each lesson, the students will have 60 minutes remaining to begin their assignments. Classes will occur twice weekly, with assigned readings and written work to be completed between sessions.

The course is a continuation of concepts introduced in English Composition I, but this course will focus on persuasive and argumentative research writing. Though students will begin the course using MLA, they may explore other citation styles, such as APA, based on their research topics.

Students may not use or reuse previous essay work.

Main Course Objectives:

To perfect:

- Critical thinking, close reading, and academic writing;
- Clear, coherent, confident, and effective written communication.

Student Learning Outcomes

Upon completion of English 1302, students should be able to:

- Identify rhetorical purposes/writing situation and methods of organization appropriate to topic, thesis, and audience;
- Collect, read, analyze, and use information from various sources, e.g., literature and history curriculum, current events, advertising, and the course texts;
- Write coherent essays observing appropriate grammatical, mechanical, and stylistic conventions;
- Write competently in the informative, analytical, and persuasive modes;
- Evaluate, edit, and revise at all stages of the writing process, which will manifest in perfected final draft submission

Your semester work comprises 70% of your grade. Your final essay and supporting documents will make up 30% of your final score. Grades are determined using a rubric system on essays, containing six areas of measurement:

1. Content (50%)
2. Organization (10%)
3. Language/Coherence (10%)
4. Spelling, Grammar, and Mechanics (10%)
5. The Writing Process (10%)
6. Growing in Skill/Style (10%) (see website below for figurative language):

If you have questions or concerns, I am available at Ambleside School of San Angelo from 2:00 to 3:00 Tuesdays, or you may call or text me at 325-374-9802.

Per ASU’s Requirements, please read the following statements:

Academic honesty:

Academic misconduct includes cheating, plagiarism, collusion, falsifying academic records, misrepresenting facts, violations of published professional ethics/standards, and any act or attempted act designed to give unfair academic advantage to oneself or another student.

See the Angelo State University Student Handbook, Part II B: Academic Integrity for more information.

Academic Integrity

Plagiarism

Plagiarism is a serious topic covered in ASU’s Academic Integrity policy in the Student Handbook. Plagiarism is the action or practice of taking someone else’s work, idea, etc., and passing it off as one’s own. Plagiarism is literary theft.
In your discussions and/or your papers, it is unacceptable to copy word-for-word without quotation marks and the source of the quotation. It is expected that you will summarize or paraphrase ideas giving appropriate credit to the source both in the body of your paper and the reference list.

Papers are subject to be evaluated for originality via Turnitin. Resources to help you understand this policy better are available at the ASU Writing Center.

Copyright Policy

Students officially enrolled in this course should make only one printed copy of the given articles and/or chapters. You are expressly prohibited from distributing or reproducing any portion of course readings in printed or electronic form without written permission from the copyright holders or publishers.

Student Disability Services:

ASU is committed to the principle that no qualified individual with a disability shall, on the basis of disability, be excluded from participation in or be denied the benefits of the services, programs or activities of the university, or be subjected to discrimination by the university, as provided by the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990 (ADA), the Americans with Disabilities Act Amendments of 2008 (ADAAA), and subsequent legislation.

The Office of Student Affairs is the designated campus department charged with the responsibility of reviewing and authorizing requests for reasonable accommodations based on a disability, and it is the student’s responsibility to initiate such a request by contacting:

Title IX Statement

Angelo State University is committed to the safety and security of all students. If you or someone you know experience sexual harassment, sexual assault, domestic or dating violence, stalking, or discrimination, you may contact ASU’s Title IX Coordinator:

Michelle Nicole Boone, J.D.
Student Absence for Observance of Religious Holy Days:

A student who intends to observe a religious holy day should make that intention known in writing to the instructor prior to the absence. See ASU Operating Policy 10.19 Student Absence for Observance of Religious Holy Day for more information.

Incomplete Grade Policy:

It is policy that incomplete grades be reserved for student illness or personal misfortune. Please contact faculty if you have serious illness or a personal misfortune that would keep you from completing course work. Documentation may be required. See ASU Operating Policy 10.11 Grading Procedures for more information.
