Course description: The course covers financial management and valuation of the firm; working capital policy; capital budgeting; cost of capital; and long-term financing.

Prerequisites: Accounting 2301

Learning Objectives: After completing this course, students will be able to:
Apply course material to improve critical thinking skills
Acquire specialized knowledge, such as time value of money, relating to corporate financial management
Develop financial skills, such as analytical thinking, critical analysis, creativity and problem solving
Identify ethical and unethical practices with regard to financial management
Acquire an understanding of the current globalization trend and its impact on corporate financial management

These learning goals will be assessed through inbedded exam questions.

Grading: There will be 4 hourly exams and a final exam. Each exam will count 20% of the final grade, with the lowest exam dropped. There will be no make-up exams. If an exam is missed, that will count as the drop grade. The remaining 20% of the final grade will be the average of in-class assignments. These assignments may be completed using the textbook or notes and students are encouraged to work in groups to complete assignments. There will be no makeups for assignments.

Academic Honesty: Students are expected to maintain complete honesty and integrity in the classroom. Students are responsible for understanding and complying with the university Academic Honor Code and the ASU Student Handbook. Cheating will not be tolerated in this course and is a violation of the University’s academic policy. Any student found guilty of dishonesty in academic work is subject to disciplinary action.

Students with Disabilities: Reasonable accommodation for students with disabilities will be made. Students desiring academic accommodations must contact the Student Life Office and are encouraged to do so early in the semester.
Cell Phone Policy: The use of cell phones is not generally an educational tool for this course and often hinders the educational process. Therefore, the use of cell phones, including for texting purposes, will not be tolerated without prior permission of the instructor. Cell phones should be turned off or in silent mode during class.

Courtesy and Respect: Courtesy and respect are essential ingredients to this class. We respect each other's opinions and point of view at all times in our class sessions. The use of profanity and harassment of any form is strictly prohibited, as are those remarks concerning one's ethnicity, race, life style, religion, etc. Violations of these rules will result in immediate dismissal from the course.

Student Absence for religious holiday: As stated in the ASU Operating Policy and Procedure, a student who intends to observe a religious holy day should make that intention known in writing to the instructor prior to the absence. Students observing religious holidays will be allowed to take exams or complete assignments scheduled for that day with a reasonable time after the absence.

Course Drop: Information concerning how to drop this course and important drop dates is available through the registrar's office.

Grade Appeals and Incompletes: As stated in the ASU Operating Policy and Procedure, a student may appeal the final grade in a course. Details are available in Operating Policy 10.03. If a student is unable to complete a course due to illness or misfortune, an incomplete grade may be available. Details are available in Operating Policy 10.11.
