Course Catalogue Description:
A course designed to lead to a basic understanding and increased enjoyment of the visual arts.

Course Content:
This course is designed as an introduction to the visual arts leading to a basic understanding and appreciation of the visual arts and its history. Lectures are presented thematically beginning with fundamental questions regarding the meaning, purpose, and style of art and concluding with an introductory survey of art from major historical periods.

Required Text: (online version)

Goals and Objectives:
• To develop a basic understanding of the visual arts and their significance from a global perspective.

• To develop a basic historical understanding of the place of visual art in our culture and cultures of the past.

• To develop a basic understanding of the vocabulary and language of art.

• To develop a basic understanding of the elements of art and the principles of design.

• To develop a basic understanding of art media and the methods and techniques to create art.

• To develop a basic understanding of Aesthetics and various theories of art.

• To foster an interest and appreciation of the visual arts and material culture as well as its preservation.

Expected Course-Level Student Learning Outcomes:
Upon completion of this course:
• Students will acquire a basic knowledge of the history of art from the ancient to post-modern eras in a variety of media, including architecture.

• Students will develop competency in stylistic and iconographic analyses of works of art which may be applied both in and outside the classroom.

• Students will be given the opportunity to improve oral and written expression as well as critical thinking skills, leading to an increased competency in the articulation of ideas.
• Students will be able to identify the significance of the socio-historical context in which a work of art or architecture was created.

• Students will be able to critically examine the ethical issues surrounding the discussion of ownership of cultural property and its preservation.

Course Requirements and Grade Basis:
Students will be evaluated on the following:
Chapter quizzes & exams, class participation, class discussion, critical analysis essays, class project, and one cumulative final exam. All deadlines are final and firm; no extensions will be granted.

Extra Credit:
Extra credit will be a creative writing essay due well before the end of the semester. No other extra credit is available and there are absolutely no extensions allowed beyond posted deadline.

Evaluation:
Grading for each component will be as follows:
90-100 = A
80-89 = B
70-79 = C
69 and below = F

Exams = 30%
Essays = 20%
Discussion = 30%
Projects = 10%
Participation = 10%

Important: Be advised the student is responsible for, and may be tested on, all material presented in lectures, which may or may not appear in the course textbook. Furthermore, this is a semester class and six weeks’ grades from the high school should be considered a progress report.

Attendance Policy: Attendance policy will follow FHS rules and procedures. If unavoidable circumstances affect attendance, please meet with the instructor privately to determine whether missed work can be made up. It is the student’s responsibility to obtain lecture notes from classmates if a class is missed. If a student arrives late to class he/she will be counted tardy.

• Electronics: All electronic devices must be turned off and out of sight at all times unless told otherwise. Any infractions of this policy will result in a lowered participation grade.

• Classroom Conduct: Please act responsibly and respectfully towards the instructor, guest speakers, and your fellow students. In this regard, students who conduct themselves in a disrespectful manner will be asked to leave the class. Students are expected to give their undivided attention to the instructor or the speaker. Therefore, use of any electronic devices and/or talking to other students, unless instructed to do so as part of a class activity, may result in removal from the classroom and a reduced participation grade.

• Emails to the instructor must include your course information in the subject line. You will receive a faster response this way.
• “Angelo State University expects its students to maintain complete honesty and integrity in their academic pursuits. Students are responsible for understanding the Academic Honor Code, which is contained in both print and web versions of the Student Handbook.”

ADA Compliance
Persons with disabilities which may warrant academic accommodations must contact the Student Life Office, UC-Garden level, (325) 942-2191, in order to request such accommodations prior to any accommodations being implemented. You are encouraged to make this request early in the semester so that appropriate arrangements can be made.

THECB Creative Arts Core Objective:
The objective of the creative arts in a core curriculum is to expand the student's knowledge of the human condition and human cultures, especially in relation to behaviors, ideas, and values expressed in works of human imagination and thought. Through study in disciplines such as the creative arts, students will engage in critical analysis, form aesthetic judgments, and develop an appreciation for arts as fundamental to the health and survival of any society.

THECB Core Curriculum Component Area Objectives:
• Critical Thinking Skills (CT): to include creative thinking, innovation, inquiry, and analysis, evaluation and synthesis of information;
• Communication Skills (CS): to include effective development, interpretation and expression of ideas through written, oral and visual communication;
• Teamwork (T): to include the ability to consider different points of view and to work effectively with others to support a shared purpose or goal;
• Social Responsibility (SR): to include intercultural competence, knowledge of civic responsibility, and the ability to engage effectively in regional, national, and global communities.

Disclaimer: Since this class deals with artworks from other periods and cultures, there may be some images or themes discussed that may be offensive to some students. Please feel free to calmly discuss and defend your point of view. But recognize that not everyone thinks and believes alike. Please try to keep an open mind.
Due Dates
All due dates are firm and nonnegotiable and late work or extensions will not be permitted. Students will be given ample time to start and finish assignments on or before deadlines. All Pearson assignments open 1 week prior to due date. Students have access to the textbook, quizzes, and exams through the internet during dedicated class time and anytime outside of class. Projects and discussions will be announced during class throughout the semester.
