Course Objectives and Learning Outcomes

English 2321 is a general survey with the primary objective of familiarizing students with some of the major periods, authors, and literary movements in British literature. We will examine poetry, drama, fiction, and nonfiction, analyzing the texts through discussion as well as writing.

- Critical thinking: students will gather, analyze evaluate, and synthesize information relevant to a question or issue by mastering a series of assigned literary works in terms of generic conventions and content.
- Communication: students will develop, interpret, and express ideas through effective written communication.
- Social responsibility: students will demonstrate ability to engage with locally, regionally, nationally, or internationally known literary artists and the texts they create, and to reflect upon the shared traditions of literary expression, the debates that help shape literature, and the conflicts, cultural differences, and shared experiences.

- Personal responsibility: students will demonstrate the ability to evaluate choices, actions, and consequences by identifying, analyzing, and evaluating ethical decision-making in literary examples.

Upon completing sophomore literature, you should be able to:

- understand the role of literature as an expression of values and interpretation of human experience
- understand and apply methods of responding to literature analytically
- understand the form, function, scope and variety of literature, including specialized discipline terminology
- understand the interactive relationship between history, culture, and literature.

Absence for Observance of Religious Holy Days

A student who intends to observe a religious holy day should make that intention known in writing to the instructor prior to the absence. See ASU Operating Policy 10.19 Student Absence for Observance of Religious Holy Day for more information. Incomplete Grade Policy It is policy that incomplete grades be reserved for student illness or personal misfortune. Please contact faculty if you have serious illness or a personal misfortune that would keep you from completing course work. Documentation may be required. See ASU Operating Policy 10.11 Grading Procedures for more information. Student Conduct Policies Academic Integrity Students are expected to maintain complete honesty and integrity in all work. Any student found guilty of any form of dishonesty in academic work is subject of disciplinary action and possible expulsion from ASU.

Academic Integrity Plagiarism

Plagiarism is a serious topic covered in ASU’s Academic Integrity policy in the Student Handbook. Plagiarism is the action or practice of taking someone else’s work, idea, etc., and passing it off as one’s own. Plagiarism is literary theft. In your discussions and/or your papers, it is unacceptable to copy word-for-word without quotation marks and the source of the quotation. It is expected that you will summarize or paraphrase ideas giving appropriate credit to the source both in the body of your paper and the reference list. Papers are subject to be evaluated for originality via Turnitin. Resources to help you understand this policy better are available at the ASU Writing Center. Copyright Policy Students officially enrolled in this course should make only one printed copy of the given articles and/or chapters. You are expressly prohibited from distributing or reproducing any portion of course readings in printed or electronic form without written permission from the copyright holders or publishers. 3 General Policies Related to This Course All students are required to follow the policies and procedures presented in these documents:
