Title IX: Angelo State University is committed to providing and strengthening an educational, working, and living environment where students, faculty, staff, and visitors are free from sex discrimination of any kind. In accordance with Title VII, Title IX, the Violence Against Women Act (VAWA), the Campus Sexual Violence Elimination Act (SaVE), and other federal and state laws, the University prohibits discrimination based on sex, which includes pregnancy, and other types of Sexual Misconduct. Sexual Misconduct is a broad term encompassing all forms of gender-based harassment or discrimination and unwelcome behavior of a sexual nature. The term includes sexual harassment, nonconsensual sexual contact, nonconsensual sexual intercourse, sexual assault, sexual exploitation, stalking, public indecency, interpersonal violence (domestic violence or dating violence), sexual violence, and any other misconduct based on sex. You are encouraged to report any incidents involving sexual misconduct to the Office of Title IX Compliance and the Director of Title IX Compliance/Title IX Coordinator, Michelle Boone, J.D.

You may submit reports in the following manner:
Online: www.angelo.edu/incident-form
Face to Face:
Mayer Administration Building,
Room 210

Note, as a faculty member at Angelo State, I am a mandatory reporter and must report incidents involving sexual misconduct to the Title IX Coordinator.
Should you wish to speak to someone in confidence about an issue, you may contact the University Counseling Center (325-942-2371), the 24-Hour Crisis Helpline (325-486-6345), or the University Health Clinic (325-942-2171).

For more information about resources related to sexual misconduct, Title IX, or Angelo State’s policy please visit: www.angelo.edu/title-

*Notice to Students with Disabilities: Angelo State University complies with the Americans with Disabilities Act in making reasonable accommodations for qualified students with disabilities. If you suspect that you may have a disability (physical impairment, learning disability, psychiatric disability, etc.), please contact the Dean of Student Life and Student Services at 942-2191. If you need disability accommodations in this class, please see me as soon as possible.

Academic Advising: The College of Liberal Arts and Department of Communication, and Mass Media require that students meet with a Faculty Advisor as soon as they are ready to declare a major. The Faculty Advisor will set up a degree plan, which must be signed by the student, faculty advisor, and the department chair. Communication or Mass Media majors who have questions about advising or declaring a major in the department, can call 942-2031. Undeclared majors are supported by ASU's Center for Academic Excellence located in Library A312, and can be reached at 942-2710.

Grade Appeal Process. As stated in Angelo State University Operating Policy and Procedure (OP 10.03 Student Grade Grievances), a student who believes that he or she has not been held to appropriate academic standards as outlined in the class syllabus, equitable evaluation procedures, or appropriate grading, may appeal the final grade given in the course. The burden of proof is upon the student to demonstrate the appropriateness of the appeal. A student with a complaint about a grade is encouraged to first discuss the matter with the instructor. For complete details, including the responsibilities of the parties involved in the process and the number of days allowed for completing the steps in the process, see Operating Procedure 10.03 at http://www.angelo.edu/opmanual/docs/Section_10_Academic_Policies-Students/OP_10.03_Grade_Grievance.doc.

Honor Code Policy: Violations of academic integrity are very serious matters and are clearly documented in the ASU Student Handbook. The work a student submits in a class is expected to be the student's own work and must be work completed for that particular class and assignment. Plagiarism means intentionally or knowingly representing the words or ideas of another as one's own. This may include your own previous work. Plagiarism includes quoting or paraphrasing from other sources without acknowledging/citing the source of your information or presenting quoted material as your own words. You must be very clear about attribution of sources and you must know how to cite sources in a paper. Please see full Honor Code Policy at http://www.angelo.edu/cstudent/documents/pdf/Student_Handbook.pdf

Attendance/Participation

There will be an attendance sign-in sheet, and it is your responsibility to make sure that you sign each day; if you fail to sign it you will be counted as absent. Regardless of attendance, you are responsible for class notes, handouts, and deadlines. If you have an issue with your grade, you must see me within 7 class days, to resolve the issue.

Attendance is required in this course. The Communication & Mass Media Department requires all students to attend no less than 75% or the class to pass the course. If you have 11 absences of any kind in a MWF section, 8 absences in a MW or TTH, or 7 absences in a Summer class section you will automatically fail this course, regardless of your numerical average. [See http://www.angelo.edu/dept/cdj/faculty/csy12301.htm, the departmental COMM 2301 Policy Statement]. In addition to that policy, you are allowed two absences without penalty on lecture days only in TTH sections. From that point on, 2 points will be deducted from your final grade for arriving late, leaving early, or missing class. Regardless of attendance, you are responsible for class notes, handouts and deadlines. You will be assigned a critique to complete for at least one speaker each speech day you are not to perform. There are no makeups. If you are absent when assigned to speak, critique, or take a test, you will receive zero for that grade. Please note that if you do not complete all four required speeches in this course you will automatically fail the course, regardless of your numerical average in the remaining course requirements.

If you maintain perfect attendance, (zero absences) you will receive a 2 point bonus, added to you final grade. If you miss only one class, you will receive a 1 point bonus.

Communication Program Learning Outcomes

1. Evaluate communication competence of self and others.
2. Recognize and understand key issues related to communication theory and media/speech ethics.
3. Create original communication products (speeches, campaigns, papers, videos, etc.) both individually and in collaboration with other students and/or community partners.

Assignments

Recordings:
Student will capture and edit recordings of sound effects, Public Service Announcements and Radio Talk Shows. Total= 300 Points

Exams:
There will be a midterm and final examination during the semester. The final will not be comprehensive. Each exam is worth 100 points. Total=200 Points

Quizzes:
There will be five quizzes given throughout the semester. Each quiz is worth 20 points and will cover class lectures, and assigned textbook readings Total=100 Points

Editing Exercises:
Students will import raw audio files and edit to broadcast quality by fitting recording into allotted time slot, adjusting audio tracks for peaking in volume, and adding effects. Total=300 points
Active Engagement/Class Participation:
You are required to be actively engaged in lectures. An actively engaged student is courteous and attentive to the class and does not speak to a classmate while a peer is giving a presentation or during a lecture. Actively engaged students arrive to class on time and are rarely tardy or truant. After two late arrivals to class 2 points will be deducted and after the second absence from class two points will be deducted. Total=100 Points

Methods of Evaluation: Grades will be determined from exams and the written assignments. Students earning 90 percent or more of the total available points will receive grades of A. Students earning 80 to 89 percent, 70 to 79 percent and 60 to 69 percent will receive grades of B, C or D, respectively. Students earning less than 60 percent will not pass the course.

The key to success in this class is to read the book thoroughly and completely. Lectures support – but will not replace – the material found in the text.

The key to reading the text is to stay current. Read the chapters BEFORE coming to lecture; read at least a chapter a week and do not fall behind. In other words, come to class and read the book and you will do well in this class, and, truth be told, enjoy the class.

Grading
Your grade will be dependent upon how many points you have earned throughout the semester. The following is the point/grade breakdown:
900-1000 points = A
800-900 = B
700-800 = C
600-700 = D
600 - below = F
