Plagiarism

Plagiarism at ASU is a serious topic. The Angelo State University’s Honor Code gives specific details on plagiarism and what it encompasses. Plagiarism is the action of taking someone else's work, idea, etc., and passing it off as one’s own. Plagiarism is a literary theft.

Specific conditions for courses taught in the Department for Teacher Education: At the first incident of plagiarism, the student will receive a zero (0) for the plagiarized assignment while this infraction will be noted on the student's records. Should there be a second occurrence of plagiarism, the student will receive a final grade of F for the course and another infraction report will be added to the student's permanent records.

In your papers for this course, it is unacceptable to copy word for word without quotation marks and the source of the quotation. Quotes should be used sparingly as it is expected that you summarize the information in your own words while giving credit to the source. Resources to help you understand this policy better are available at the ASU Writing Center.
