Candidates are expected to complete all Modules and the Field Experience assignments by posted deadlines to be successful in this course. Candidate is responsible for keeping track of points earned during each module and during field experience to insure a passing grade. The candidate must pass both the course component and field experience component of this course independently and combined.

- Contact the ASU Help Desk at (325) 942-2911 to learn about BLACKBOARD and accessing it. http://blackboard.angelo.edu All technical questions are to be addressed to the Help Desk (helpdesk@angelo.edu) or IT Support (ITSupport@angelo.edu).
Method of Instruction: Online
This is an online class. You must have a computer with reliable Internet access and data speed to access and use BLACKBOARD daily. This online course is not a self-paced course. You need to make times in your schedule to “come to class” online, and this should be set in your schedule every week. It is self-paced with due dates for each module and during field experience. Each module will open and close on specific dates. Once a module has closed, assignments will NOT be accepted, unless otherwise directed. BLACKBOARD is utilized for all communication, course content, and class assignments including midterm and final examinations. Reminder: Check BLACKBOARD daily.

Expectations

- Access the course on BLACKBOARD by the first day of the semester to begin the assignments and become familiar with ALL course requirements.
- Candidates are responsible for completing assignments in a timely manner. All assignments due on Blackboard must be submitted by midnight on the due date (See each Module for deadlines and due dates!). All assignments must be submitted in Microsoft Word, 12 points, Times New Roman, double-spaced and use the prescribed method of submission. Minimal headers should exist on submitted papers. Please be sure all work is saved more than once, as it is not the instructor’s responsibility if technology issues suddenly occur. No late work will be accepted.
- As teacher candidates you are expected to represent professionalism and to model learning. You are responsible to proofread and correct all documents for proper grammar, spelling, formatting, and punctuation before submitting your work. Points will be deducted for inaccuracies. The ASU Writing Center is available to assist you as needed. A positive attitude, adherence to professional dispositions, effort and preparation are equally important in this course and in the profession you are preparing to join.
- Active participation in all assignments is key to the success of this course. Online courses require time management, initiative, research, and a lot of effort on the part of the student. Candidates must complete all course work on time to effectively complete the course.
- While the instructor recognizes that last minute questions are sure to arise, it is the student’s responsibility to plan in advance and to ask questions as needed in a timely manner. *Please allow 12 hours for email responses during the school week and up to 5 days for assignment grading. Due to privacy issues, only ASU email can be utilized when communicating. antonio.tijerina@angelo.edu
- All work for this course must indicate reflection, insight, and required reading and assignments. Any required discussion posts must be posted by Thursday of each week to allow for student responses. Please use discussion board etiquette as outlined in each discussion.

Attendance
The course component of this course is completed entirely online. Online attendance is determined by meeting the posted deadlines for all assignments. Candidates should notify the professor by email or voice message if they are dropping the course or withdrawing form the university. The course content is provided in an asynchronous, on-line mode, utilizing Blackboard as the delivery medium. There are due dates for all assignments in this course and each module will open and close on specific dates. Once a module is closed, no late assignments from that module will be accepted, so it is important to watch due dates and use your time wisely.
The 8 weeks of field experience is completed physically in the classroom assigned to the candidate by the field experience office. The candidate is also required to attend an on-campus Field Experience Meeting. See information below. This is the only time you will meet face-to-face with Teacher Education & Field Experience Faculty.

I strongly recommend you schedule the same time each week to “attend” class. This will help you to manage your time and get the required readings and assignments finished on time.

RDG 4320 Field Experience: This course, as part of a state issued teaching certificate mandate, requires 15 clock-hours of field experience. Instructions on your field placement in this course are provided on Blackboard. Observations of 50-55 minute class periods cannot be rounded up to equal an hour’s time. Instructions on completing these 15 clock-hours, 2 hours per week, and the assignments are posted on Blackboard.

One required field experience meeting is scheduled for: Announcement will be sent via email and blackboard.
RDG 4320 Field Experience - 2 hours per week for 8 weeks = 15/16 clock-hours, you must be engaged in working directly with adolescent students, NOT OBSERVING. This experience is for hands-on teaching and learning with actual students in the classroom you have been assigned.

Questions regarding the assignments during the Field Experience should be addressed to your professor. Questions regarding the Field Experience placements, scheduling of days and times, and schools should be addressed to Mrs. Lorilynn Herron, Field Experience Advisor, 325-942-2209 in the EPI Center at ASU, College of Education, Room 287 EFA-Carr Bldg.

Lori Herron will let you know what school building you will be assigned to at the above required meeting. After that meeting you will be responsible for contacting and scheduling your own time with the Principal and Cooperating Teachers at the campus you have been assigned to. (Please schedule the same day and time each week with your cooperating teacher so he/she can depend on you at those specific times. This will also allow you to see the same students with each visit. If you wish to be seen as a professional and serious about what you are doing you will need to demonstrate it through this behavior. Everyday you walk in a school building you are on a job interview. You are being observed and assessed as a possible teacher. Leave them with the best impression as possible.) You will have assignments to complete for this course during your time in your field placement classroom.

All forms (you will receive at the required meeting listed above) for your Fieldwork will be scanned and posted to Blackboard. The last documents will be scanned and posted on or before the TBD. Typically it is the Sunday after the last day of field experience.

Final Time Log Sheets must be electronically uploaded to Blackboard. Make sure everything is filled in and both signatures of candidate and Teacher Mentor are filled in.

The 8-week period you have to complete these required 15/16 clock hours - (2 hours each week).

CRITICALLY/HELPFUL Important Information-

This online course is not a self-paced course. You need to make time in your schedule to “come to class” online every week, and this should be set in your schedule. As this is a three-hour credit course, you should plan for at least three hours of instructional time, reading, and assignments, just as you would for a face-to-face class. There are due dates for all assignments in this course and each module will open and close on specific dates. Once a module has closed, no late assignments from that module will be accepted, so it is important to watch due dates and use your time wisely.

Module 1 consists of activities to familiarize the candidate with the course description, syllabus, field experience information and requirements, the Code of Ethics and Standard Practices for Texas Teachers, the ASU Disposition for Teacher Education Candidates, and the list of what each candidate had to demonstrate at the time of application to be allowed into the Educator Preparation Program (EPP).
Week 2-4  Module 2-Developing Strategy Acquisition and Self-Regulation
Module 2 OPENS: Monday-Jan. 27, 2020 at 8:00 am and is CLOSED on Sun.-Feb. 16, 2020 at 11:59 pm.

Proficient skills in reading and writing are critical for students to be successful in school. Module 2 introduces and begins exploring the importance of middle and high school students need for strong reading comprehension skills in order to access the information necessary to understand the subject matter in their content area texts. One approach/model that will be introduced is Self-Regulation Strategy Development (SRSD). Also, how self-regulation can be taught to, practiced and used effectively by middle school and high school students.

Week 5-8  Module 3-Reading to Learn
Module 3 OPENS: Monday-Feb. 17, 2020 at 8:00 am and CLOSED on Sun. -March 08, 2020 at 11:59 pm.

Module 3 continues to explore the concept of good reading comprehension skills being the means for middle and high school students to read and comprehend information gathered from content area texts. Several strategies for increasing middle and high school students comprehension skills are examined along with lesson and materials for teaching these strategies are presented: TRAP for Reading Comprehension. TRAP IDEAS for Summarizing, and Think about Reading with TWA.

Week 9-12 Module 4-Writing to Learn
Module 4 OPENS: Monday-March 09, 2020 at 8:00 am and is CLOSED on Sun.-April 29, 2020 at 11:59 pm.

Module 4 explores how effective written expression is a difficult and demanding task for even the most accomplished writers. Yet it is critical for middle school and high school students to effectively express in writing their ideas about the information they are reading in their content area texts. Several strategies for increasing middle and high school students written expression skills are examined along with lesson and materials for teaching these strategies are presented: C-Space for Narrative Writing, STOP & DARE for Persuasive Writing, TWA & PLANS for Informative Writing, and Quick Writes.

Module 5 OPENS: Monday-April 30, 2020 at 8:00 am and is CLOSED on Sun-May 05, 2020 at 11:59 pm.

A chronic problem for students, parents and teachers is covered in Module 5. Homework completion can be one of the most difficult problems to overcome because homework involves both the school and home environments. It is important for teachers to understand the school’s role and parent’s role, as well as how to facilitate an environment where middle and high school students can complete their homework.
