GRADING POLICY

Grade Distribution (with competency for learning outcome given):
Quizzes—21 20%
Tests—4 50%
Discussion Boards 15%
Short Answer Quizzes 15%
Total 100%

The grade of “C” is given for work that completes all of the assignment requirements and is submitted on time. Grades “A” or “B” are given for work that meets the “C” requirements and clearly demonstrates thought and development in appropriate skills and aesthetic understanding.

I will NOT accept any late assignments, except due to excused illnesses. Each assignment has been created so that it emphasizes the current topic in class and prepares the foundations for the next project. Skipping an assignment will more than likely be a hindrance and detrimental to your work on the proceeding assignments.

GRADE APPEAL PROCESS

As stated in the ASU Operating Policy and Procedure (OP10.03) a student who believes that he or she has not been held to appropriate academic standards as outlined in the class syllabus, equitable evaluation procedures, or appropriate grading, may appeal the final grade given the course. The burden of proof is upon the student to demonstrate the appropriateness of the appeal. A student with a complaint about a grade is encouraged to first discuss the matter with the instructor. For complete details, including the responsibilities of the parties involved in the process and the number of days allowed for completing the steps in the process, see OP10.03 at www.angelo.edu/opmanual/docs/Section_10_Academic_Policies-Students/OP_10.03_Grade_Grievance.doc

Plagiarism

Plagiarism: What it means to do it, and the consequences of being caught.

I was a student myself, and I understand the pressures students face in this department. It's getting close to the end of the semester and you just opened a show. You have two research papers due, a major project, and some final exams. You haven't started on your final project because you've been with your frat or sorority every night until midnight. Your lab partner has been flaking out on you. You've fallen behind in all of your classes - and you don't particularly like anything we've studied in this class. Really - you'd rather deal with any other assignments than think about theatre. Understandable. You can cut down on all of this, you think, if you just find some quick material on the internet on a play and copy it in, work in some of the material from your friend's notes (you didn't go to class the day we discussed it), and "voila!" A paper! Worse yet, you find just the paper you're looking for from the internet. Only $10 a page... this is too perfect!

After the final exam you get an email from me telling you that your paper seems to match another one found online. It will be investigated. You find yourself in a disciplinary hearing - your scholarship is revoked, you flunk Intro to Drama or, worse, you are expelled from the University.

You want to finish your degree elsewhere. You audition for another grad program. They'd take you in a heartbeat, they say, but it appears that you were expelled from a school for academic misconduct; they can't possibly admit you to the program. Other graduate programs turn you down. Employers for stupid bank jobs even balk at your record. You waste your life working in an insurance office job that your loser brother got you in Kalamazoo.

Materials that are available for you to plagiarize are available to me to review. I have read most of the printed sources you are likely to use, and I also can purchase ready-made essays from the same vendors...if they can sell to you, what is to stop them from making money from me? Plagiarism is a lousy shortcut, not just because it leads to the tragic scenario I outlined above, but also because:

1. Projects and Papers put together from lifted sources are usually of poor quality. If you think the people who produce these papers for hire are better writers than you, think again. They are usually 'C' quality papers at best.

2. You lose my respect, and the respect of others on faculty. It will affect the way we evaluate you in the future.

3. You cheat yourself of an opportunity to learn. I don't assign projects for my own enjoyment! I assign papers because I want to give you an opportunity to explore in greater depth a topic you find interesting. I want to help you learn to be a better writer - to organize your thoughts, to think on a deeper level, and to analyze materials more effectively. What a great opportunity! You paid a lot of money for such an opportunity - and you cheat yourself of that. Think of how much money you are wasting by just 'getting by.'

Remember: Any paper you write yourself, with your own research, will usually be good enough for a 'B' grade or better. I appreciate the effort a student puts into a research project. Find a topic you like. ASK ME if you have any problems. I am happy to help you - even if you have to remind me a gazillion times. I take plagiarism very seriously, and I WILL catch you. I'm terribly zealous about it. So, don't do it.

Academic Honor Code
Violations of academic integrity are very serious matters and are clearly documented in the ASU Student Handbook. The work a student submits in a class is expected to be the student's own work and must be work completed for that particular class and assignment. Plagiarism means intentionally or knowingly representing the words or ideas of another as one's own. This may include your own previous work. Plagiarism includes quoting or paraphrasing from other sources without acknowledging/citing the source of your information or presenting quoted material as your own words. You must be very clear about attribution of sources and you must know how to cite sources in a paper. Please see full Honor Code Policy at http://www.angelo.edu/cstudent/documents/pdf/Student_Handbook.pdf

Academic Advising
The College of Arts and Sciences and Department of Communication, Mass Media and Theatre require that students meet with a Faculty Advisor as soon as they are ready to declare a major. The Faculty Advisor will set up a degree plan, which must be signed by the student, faculty advisor, and the department chair. Communication, Mass Media, or Theatre majors who have questions about advising or declaring a major in the department, can call 942-2031. Undeclared majors are supported by ASU’s Center for Academic Excellence located in Library A312, and can be reached at 942-2710.

Non-Discrimination
Prejudice of any kind will not be accepted in the classroom. This includes age, race, political stance, religious preference, and ethnicity. Students are allowed to disagree and voice opinions if they do so in a non-offensive manner.

Incomplete Grades
The grade I is given when the student is unable to complete the course because of illness or personal misfortune. An I that is not removed before the end of the next long semester automatically becomes an F. A graduate student will be allowed one year to remove a grade of I before it automatically becomes an F. To graduate from ASU, a student must complete all I’s.

Students with Disabilities
Angelo State University complies with the Americans with Disabilities Act in making reasonable accommodations for qualified students with disabilities. If you suspect that you may have a disability (physical impairment, learning disability, psychiatric disability, etc.), please contact the Dean of Student Life and Student Services at 942-2191. If you need disability accommodations in this class, please see me as soon as possible.

In General
I do not accept late assignments. However, if you are having trouble keeping up - please come and see me. I would much rather you come and talk to me than let your work slide. I am in during my office hours, during the shop, and other times, and I can be easily reached by email. You will find I am usually pretty agreeable if you take the initiative and communicate with me.
Instructor’s Philosophy

I believe students are as much responsible for their own education as their professors are. It is imperative that students read the required assignment before coming to class. In class we can clarify and synthesize the information you have read and add real life examples and situations for better understanding. Please come to class with an open mind, willingness to speak, and an enthusiasm for participation.

Successful class participations includes respectful and active contribution to class discussions that demonstrate comprehension of the material and preparation for class, as well as raising relevant and pertinent questions about the material in an effort to better understand and evaluate the assigned readings and their relationship to theatre.

Please be aware that this class may sometimes use materials or engage in discussions of ideas that you personally find objectionable. It is expected that you will participate fully in all activities of the class. Keep in mind that reading and witnessing something that you find difficult or objectionable does not imply that you believe or embrace that thing. From time to time, I may offer points of view that are geared to stimulate discussion or encourage independent thinking, not necessarily my personal beliefs of points of view.

Blackboard

This course utilizes ASU’s Blackboard system. Access to Blackboard is thru Ramport. Please familiarize yourself with how Blackboard functions, as it is key to your success in this course. All discussions, assignments will be turned in and all quizzes and tests will be taken via Blackboard. You can also see your grades in the My Grades area on Blackboard.

Help with Blackboard is provided thru Technology Services. It can be found on the Support tab in Blackboard or by going to http://blackboard.angelo.edu/webapps/portal/frameset.jsp?tab_tab_group_id=_1_1

A Note about Questions

Every semester I get tons of questions about content in the course. Most of the time, the answer is easily found on either Blackboard or in the Syllabus. Therefore, if your question can be answered by checking either of those sources, I will not answer it.
Quizzes
There will be 21 short quizzes, each covering a chapter of the text and the six video viewings. Quiz dates can be found on the course calendar.

Quizzes are given via Blackboard. The grading module will open at midnight the day of the quiz, and will close at 11:59pm on the same day. You must complete the quiz during that 24 hour time frame. You will have one 30 minute opportunity during that window to complete the quiz (you cannot “come and go” from the quiz). Once you enter the quiz do not hit back, log out, shut down, or do anything else on your computer. If you do so, you will not be allowed back into the quiz, and you will receive a 0 (zero) for that quiz. Your grade will be automatically given to you at the completion of the quiz.

It goes without saying that Academic Honesty is expected on the Quizzes. No “group-quiz-taking” or sharing of answers is allowed. To discourage dishonesty, each quiz is randomly generated from a bank of questions. No two quizzes are alike.

Exams
There will be 4 exams. 3 are given at the end of each module, covering a section of the class. Though the first 3 exams are not cumulative, you may be asked to compare previous era’s with ones covered on the test. The 4th is the Final Exam.

Exams are given via Blackboard. The grading module will open at midnight the day of the exam, and will close at 11:59pm on the same day. You must complete the quiz during that 24 hour time frame. You will have one 75 minute opportunity during that window to complete the exam. You cannot “come and go” from the exam. Once you enter the exam do not hit back, log out, shut down, or do anything else on your computer. If you do so, you will not be allowed back into the exam and you will receive a 0 (zero) for that exam. Your grade will be automatically given to you at the completion of the exam.

It goes without saying that Academic Honesty is expected on the Exams. No “group-test-taking” or sharing of answers is allowed. To discourage dishonesty, each exam is randomly generated from a bank of questions. No two exams are alike.
Title IX at Angelo State University:

Angelo State University is committed to providing and strengthening an educational, working, and living environment where students, faculty, staff, and visitors are free from sex discrimination of any kind. In accordance with Title VII, Title IX, the Violence Against Women Act (VAWA), the Campus Sexual Violence Elimination Act (SaVE), and other federal and state laws, the University prohibits discrimination based on sex, which includes pregnancy, and other types of Sexual Misconduct. Sexual Misconduct is a broad term encompassing all forms of gender-based harassment or discrimination and unwelcome behavior of a sexual nature. The term includes sexual harassment, nonconsensual sexual contact, nonconsensual sexual intercourse, sexual assault, sexual exploitation, stalking, public indecency, interpersonal violence (domestic violence or dating violence), sexual violence, and any other misconduct based on sex. You are encouraged to report any incidents involving sexual misconduct to the Office of Title IX Compliance and the Director of Title IX Compliance/Title IX Coordinator, Michelle Boone, J.D.

You may submit reports in the following manner:
