Required Textbook:
The Art of Public Speaking, 13th edition
Author: Stephen E. Lucas
Publisher: McGraw-Hill Higher Education

A digital version of the textbook is already included in your course materials. There is no need to purchase. A discounted version of the print book can be added on to your eBook access by going to the bookstore and requesting a loose-leaf upgrade.

Student Learning Outcomes:
COMM 1315 is a course designed to help students across academic majors to learn how to communicate effectively in public by understanding and analyzing the audience and situation then creating an appropriate message. Core public speaking skills are message clarity, organization, language, delivery, and the use of multimedia/presentation technology. Emphasis will be placed on presenting a variety of speeches throughout the semester.

Upon completion of this course, students should be able to:
- Gather, analyze, evaluate, and synthesize information relevant to a question or issue. (CT1)
- Develop and demonstrate a logical position (i.e., perspective, thesis, hypothesis) that acknowledges ambiguities or contradictions. (CT2)
- Develop, interpret, and express ideas through effective written communication. (CS1)
- Develop, interpret, and express ideas through effective oral communication. (CS2)
- Develop, interpret, and express ideas through effective communication. (CS3)
- Consider different viewpoints as a member of a team. (TW1)
- Work effectively with others to support and accomplish a shared goal. (TW2)
- Demonstrate the ability to evaluate choices, actions, and consequences as related to ethical decision making. (PR1)

Methods for Assessing Learning Outcomes:
Informative Speech: (15% of Final Grade)
A 5-7 minute informative, unbiased speech about a topic of controversy at the local, state, national, or international level, where both sides of the issue are presented. Preparation outline will be required.
Special Occasion Speech: (10% of Final Grade)
A 3-5 minute wedding toast, eulogy, or acceptance speech.

Persuasive Speech: (15% of Final Grade)
A 7-10 minute persuasive speech where the student chooses a side from their informative speech to advocate. Speaking outline will be required.

Persuasive Speech (Monroe’s Motivated Sequence): (20% of Final Grade)
A 12 minute persuasive speech where the student groups attempt to persuade the audience to volunteer for a non-profit organization. Speaking outline and a multimedia requirement.

Evaluations & Critiques (5% of Final Grade)

Participation (10% of Final Grade)
Informed participation in online synchronous/asynchronous discussions. You will be expected to contribute to class discussions based on speeches, assigned readings, outlines and prompt delivery of materials.

Quizzes: (10% of Final Grade)
The quizzes will draw from lectures, readings, online discussions and all other material and activities used in the course. There will be 6 quizzes in this course.

Final Exam: (15% of Final Grade)
There will be one multiple-choice final exam at the end of the semester based on material covered during the entire course. The final exam will be made available from May 4-8.

Grading Criteria:
You will be evaluated on the following:
1) the level of your engagement with the course materials (as evidenced in written work and discussion)
2) your capacity to explain your ideas and analysis in articulate and well-written forms
3) your ability to creatively explore theories and methodologies

How final grades will be calculated:
90-100% A
80-89% B
70-70% C
60-69% D
under 60% F
Blackboard Course Navigation:
The Course Schedule in the Course Resources section on the left-hand gray blue panel in Blackboard, provides an illustration of all due dates in the course. All course activities are due by 11:59pm on date specified - No Exceptions

All written assignments will be saved as .pdf. Failure to do so will result in a reduction in grade. Instructions to save webpage as .pdf, to save a word document as .pdf and to use print screen on a personal computer, will be located in the Course Resources section of Blackboard.

The Lessons section in Blackboard lists weekly module pages that identify each task to be completed for that week. The weekly folders include links to readings, assignments, discussions and related media.

General Course Requirements:
Your competency in this course will be measured by preparation, delivery and evaluation of four formal speeches, six quizzes and one final exam (which may include multiple-choice, true-false, short answer and essay questions. FAILING TO SUBMIT A SPEECH ON THE ASSIGNED DATE, BY THE ASSIGNED TIME WILL RESULT IN A ZERO AND RECEIVING AN “F” IN THE COURSE; AS NOT DELIVERING ALL FOUR SPEECHES WILL RESULT IN AUTOMATICALLY FAILING THE CLASS REGARDLESS OF YOUR NUMERICAL AVERAGE.

1. Dress Requirement
   Appropriate dress is required for each speech. Please wear casual clothing and shoes when you record your speeches. Wear what you would wear if you were coming to class.

2. Guidelines for Recording and Uploading Speeches on YouTube
   Speeches will need to be uploaded to YouTube by the due date and time indicated in each week’s folder. You will also need to provide a link to the video in Blackboard by the specified due date. Before submitting the link, have someone else tests the link to insure that it works. If you are unfamiliar with the process of uploading a video, It is recommended that you give it a trial run far before the due date so you will not run into uploading problems. There will be No Exceptions! to excuses for late speeches. Please note: At times, the uploading speeds can be slow on YouTube; therefore, try to not wait until the last minute to upload your video. When you upload your speeches on YouTube, you will have the option to make it private or public. You must make your speech PUBLIC in order for it to be viewed and graded. If you are concerned about someone getting to the video thru a simple search, give your speech title a name that would not be searchable, for example 87tyui4o3847.

3. Video recording requirements:
This is a Public Speaking class, it is essential that we keep the “PUBLIC” in it although the class is being offered online. As such, you will be required to secure 5 adults to be part of your audience, failure to do so will result in a zero for the submitted speech. They will need to remain present through your entire speech. Before you start speaking, the person controlling the video camera should pan the audience so it can be clearly seen that there are five adults present. The five adults include the individual operating the recording device. After panning the audience, the camera operator needs to zoom in on only the speaker providing a frontal view (head to waist). The camera should remained zoomed in this position and not move during the speech. This step is necessary, nonverbal actions of the speaker (eye contact, gestures, posture, facial expressions, etc.) will need to be assessed, in addition, once you recording has started, you should not stop and restart the video at any spot. If you do so, you will need to start over from the panning of the audience. Once you finish recording your speech, and after uploading your speech, you need to ensure that it can be accessed, heard and seen. A speech that cannot be heard or seen will result in a zero. You may use notecards or a speaking outline (abbreviated outline of your full formal outline) when you speak. You will be graded on eye contact, so it is important that you use your outline only for keeping your place and providing you with small details. You may use a lectern or a podium. Most smart phones provide the ability to record a video that can be seen without issue. An external camera can also be used and connected to a computer for uploading.

4. Late Speeches
If you do not submit a speech by the due date and time, and do not have a legitimate reason for doing so (i.e., hospitalization, funeral of close family member), YOU WILL RECEIVE A ZERO for that presentation and an “F” IN THE COURSE. Technical difficulties, cannot find enough audience members, uploading problems, and nonworking YouTube links, etc. are not legitimate reasons. Only if an absence is excused through the school or by the instructor, will a student be allowed to make up a speech. If you have a legitimate reason for not submitting, you are required to contact the instructor to learn of your new due date.

5. Late Quizzes
If you miss a quiz due to an excused absence (i.e., hospitalization, funeral of close family member), you must schedule a new quiz date within a reasonable length (no more than one week, desirably less.) All arrangements for making up work should be made prior to the absence, if possible, and is the student’s responsibility. A typed, signed and dated explanation must be provided to the instructor upon returning.

Online Etiquette Expectations:
- What you write is public, be mindful of proper tone, mechanics and respect for others' opinions.
- Use humor, joking, or sarcasm with caution.
- Review your comments carefully for grammar and punctuation before you post. Well-formulated, grammatically correct.

Course Communication:
I am available to answer questions synchronously if needed. To schedule virtual office hours, you will email imangrum@angelo.edu 24 hours in advance and prepare to use Blackboard Collaborate.

Code of Student Conduct:
Angelo State University expects its students to maintain complete honesty and integrity in their academic pursuits. Plagiarism in your speech will result in a zero for the assignment, and the instructor may pursue additional measures. Speeches are to be the original composition of each student. Outside sources are required for each assignment with proper citing in a bibliography as required. Students are responsible for understanding Academic Misconduct, which is contained in both the print and web versions of the Student Handbook. Office of Title IX Compliance Statement
Angelo State University is committed to providing and strengthening an educational, working, and living environment where students, faculty, staff, and visitors are free from sex discrimination of any kind (including pregnancy, orientation, gender identity, gender-based harassment, sexual assault/exploitation, indecency, interpersonal violence, and stalking). Faculty members are responsible to report allegations to the Office of Title IX Compliance in order to connect students with resources and options in addressing allegations reported. You are encouraged to report incidents to the Director of Title IX Compliance/Title IX Coordinator, Mayer Administration Building, Room 210, 325-942-2022, michelle.boone@angelo.edu or file a report online at www.angelo.edu/incident-form. If you are wishing to speak to someone about an incident in confidence, you may contact the University Health Clinic and Counseling Center at 325-942-2173 or the ASU Crisis Helpline at 325-486-6345. The Office of Title IX Compliance also provides accommodations related to pregnancy (such as communicating with your professors regarding medically necessary absences, modifications required because of pregnancy, etc.). For more information about Title IX visit www.angelo.edu/title-ix.

Religious Holiday Observance
A “Religious holy day” means a holy day observed by a religion whose places of worship are exempt from property taxation under Texas Tax Code 11.20. B. A student who intends to observe a religious holy day should make that intention known in writing to the instructor prior to the absence. A student who is absent from classes for the observance of a religious holy day shall be allowed to take an examination or complete an assignment scheduled for that day within a reasonable time after the absence. A student who is excused under Article 29.012, section 2 may not be penalized for the absence, however; the instructor may respond appropriately if the student fails to complete the assignment satisfactorily.

Grade Appeal Process:
As stated in Angelo State University Operating Policy and Procedure (OP 10.03 Student Grade Grievances), a student who believes that he or she has not been held to appropriate academic standards as outlined in the class syllabus, equitable evaluation procedures, or appropriate grading, may appeal the final grade given in the course. The burden of proof is upon the student to demonstrate the appropriateness of the appeal. A student with a complaint about a grade is encouraged to first discuss the matter with the instructor. For complete details, including the responsibilities of the parties involved in the process and the number of days allowed for completing the steps in the process, see Operating Procedure 10.03 at http://www.angelo.edu/content/files/14196-op-1003-grade-grievance.
