Course Description

This class will discuss the history and style of music from the Baroque to modern eras.

Purpose

Through the study of music history, students will cultivate cultural literacy, as well as develop a greater understanding of the context in which our world operates today.
Musical style will be examined in the historical context through the study of various notable genre, composers, and works.

Major Course Objectives

-Gain factual knowledge regarding terminology, chronology, classification, and trends

-Gain a broader understanding and appreciation of intellectual and cultural activity

-Develop skill in expressing oneself orally or in writing

Student Learning Outcomes

The student will:

-demonstrate and apply appropriate knowledge and skills in Music History that is consistent with what is used by professionals in their discipline

-describe the general characteristics of each stylistic period in music history

-identify composers and representative works from each of these periods

-identify and discuss the different genres of music and their respective pace in Western music history
Student Assessment

Student learning outcomes will be measured by periodic exams and quizzes consisting of: a listening portion, a written portion (multiple choice, matching, short answer) and short essay. Students will also be assessed through completion of online assignments.

Class Evaluation

This class will cover Chapters 15-28 of the Hanning. Each week will be spent discussing a new chapter, and this information will be reinforced through periodic exams and completion of study guides.

Students are expected to read each assigned Chapter in advance of scheduled lectures. Further, students MUST bring the Hanning and Norton Anthology to each lecture!

Writing Assignments

Writing assignments will be covered in online assignments, a research paper, and study guide preparation. Students will develop scholarly writing practices, including critical assessment and proper use of grammar, punctuation, and citation. Students are encouraged to refer to the Holoman for guidelines of proper style.

Class Attendance

Students may miss up to two (2) classes without any negative affect on their grade. After the second absence, each additional absence will result in a 5% drop in the final letter grade. Students are responsible for material covered in class during their absence, including lecture notes and handouts.

Absences will be excused for the following reasons:
- University sponsored activities: Dr. Ott must have advance WRITTEN notice FROM THE STUDENT, please contact me even if you think I already know.
- Exceptional circumstances: In the case of exceptional circumstances, direct communication with Dr. Ott MAY result in excused absences. This is up to Dr. Ott’s discretion and is not guaranteed.

Tardiness:

- Students are encouraged to attend class, even if they will be late. Each instance of tardiness will have half the effect of an absence (2.5% of final grade).
- If a student has a concern about being able to arrive on time for class, they are strongly encouraged to discuss the matter directly with Dr. Ott.
